EX-NAVY CHIEF DONG JUN TO BE CHINA'S NEW DEFENCE MINISTER

His appointment comes two months after his predecessor General Li Shangfu was sacked after disappearing from the public eye for two months

ANALYSTS POINT TO HIS SOUTH CHINA SEA LINK

Before becoming the navy's top commander, Dong had served as the deputy commander of its Southern Theater Command, which includes the South China Sea region where Beijing is involved in territorial disputes with neighbours. Analysts say the choice of Dong is a sign of China seeing the South China Sea as a priority area in its geopolitical contest with the US

PREDECESSOR LI'S FATE UNKNOWN

- Dong's promotion also comes at a time when Beijing is upping its military pressure on Taiwan ahead of the presidential elections there
- His predecessor General Li Shangfu was abruptly sacked from the post in October. Three months earlier, Qin Gang, who was then the foreign minister, was also summarily sacked. Their fates are unknown

Reins of JD(U) back with wily Bihar CM Nitish

Lalan out as national president; proximity with Lalu Yadav may have been his nemesis

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @New Delhi

DAYS after this newspaper broke the story of Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar assuming the role of Janata Dal (United) chief as well, the party at its national executive meeting here on Friday elected him party president. The change of guard came amid rumours of a possible split in the party. That the party managed to stay intact is a testament to the skills of Nitish, who continues to be the most powerful leader in the JD(U).

Incumbent national president Lalan Singh tendered his resignation. Though there was no official word on why he did so, sources close to the leadership cryptically indicated that Lalan's growing proximity to RJD chief Lalu Yadav was responsible for Nitish's unexpected decision. Sources said Lalan and some other senior leaders had recently suggested that RJD leader Tejashwi Yadav be made Bihar chief minister so that Nitish can fully focus on national politics to take on the BJP in the 2024 general elections.

Lalan Singh and Nitish Kumar at the JD(U) meet on Friday | SHEKHAR YADAV

With Nitish dropping hints about his willingness to take back the reins of party after Lalan's resignation, sources said almost all prominent leaders within the party agreed the CM was the most prominent of the party as well as a candidate to become the Opposition's PM face. So, he must lead the party again.

After being elected party president, Nitish reiterated the party's commitment to work for the state as well the unity of the Opposition. In his typical style, Nitish said he was not personally keen to take over as the party's president. "But I have had to abide by the decision of national executive members, who have endorsed it." When his name was being proposed for the post, slogans like Desh Ka PM kaise ho, Nitish Kumar Jaise ho rented the air.

The meet projected Nitish as the "hope of the backwards, extremely backwards, minorities and unemployed youth" and urged bigger parties in the INDIA bloc to show a big heart to make the alliance a success. For his part, Nitish accused the BJP of misleading people for not delivering on its promises. The party also authorised him to take the final call in dealing with allies.

Interestingly, JD(U)'s national spokesperson K C Tyagi said the party will be represented at the consecration ceremony at the Ram temple in Ayodhya on January 22.

TYAGI ON BJP

Curiously, K C Tyagi said the BJP is not an enemy as "there is no enemy in politics but only disagreements". He, however, categorically ruled out any alliance with the ruling party at the Centre

CENTRE AND ASSAM GOVT SIGN PEACE PACT WITH ULFA FACTION

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @New Delhi

A tripartite peace accord to end Assam's decades-long insurgency was inked between the pro-talks faction of the United Liberation Front of Assam (ULFA), the Centre and the Assam government in New Delhi on Friday following years of negotiations.

The pro-talks ULFA faction vowed to shun violence, disband, and join the democratic process. However, the hardline faction, led by Paresh Baruah, is not a part of the accord.

Union home minister Amit Shah, who was present along with Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma at the signing of the accords, called it a golden day for Assam.

"The agreement is a significant milestone to fulfill Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision of a peaceful, prosperous and insurgency-free Northeast and bringing everlasting peace, prosperity and all-round development of Assam," he said.

After the accord was signed, representatives of the pro-talks faction said the Centre will take up more than 60 developmental projects in various sectors in Assam in the next five years and a special development package of ₹5,000 crore will be provided.

They said that among their demands is the setting up of land banks from encroachment-free land, allotment of land to landless indigenous communities and the formation of a committee to study the problems faced by tea gardens and their workers. They have also called on the government to treat Assam's flood and soil erosion problems as a national priority.

Shah said all demands will be fulfilled and a panel will be formed to monitor the implementation of the accord.

Legal hitch in deporting eight Indian Navy veterans from Qatar

YESHI SELI @New Delhi

THE deportation of eight naval veterans who are under arrest in Qatar hasn't happened despite both sides signing a treaty in 2015 on the transfer of sentenced prisoners between the two countries.

Arrested on August 30, 2022, the veterans were awarded capital punishment by a trial court a few months ago, but the sentences were on Thursday commuted to between three and 25 years of imprisonment by a Court of Appeal.

The hitch in the transfer of prisoners is possibly because Qatar didn't ratify the treaty. The treaty was signed during the visit of the then Qatari Foreign Minister Dr Khalid Bin Mohammed Al Attiyah. "Once a treaty like this one is signed, both nations have to ratify it. Not sure whether Qatari side ratified it. We did ratify it in India," said MEA spokesperson Arindam Bagchi.

The ratification window for both sides stays open for 90 days after the accord is signed. Both countries then exchange their ratification documents. However, no such document from Qatar is available with India.

This could possibly be the reason why the naval veterans tried under Qatar law could not be sent to India to serve the rest of their jail term.

"A few months after being kept under detention and in solitary confinement last year, the veterans were asked by the Qatar's ministry of interior to return home in Doha and pack their bags following which they would be sent to India. When they arrived with their bags, they were again placed under detention. It is possible India was exploring their transfer to the country under the agreement but since it wasn't ratified by Qatar, it didn't translate into reality," said a source.

India has signed treaties for transfer of sentenced persons with 35 countries, which include the UK, Mauritius, Bulgaria, France, Sri Lanka, Saudi Arabia, Iran, Bangladesh, Israel, the UAE, Italy, Turkey, Maldives, Russia, Canada, the US and Venezuela.

The convention on the transfer of sentenced persons is an international treaty regulating the extradition and social rehabilitation of imprisoned persons. The convention was concluded in Strasbourg on March 21, 1983 and came into effect on July 1, 1985.

Infra sector growth slows to six-month low of 7.8%

MONIKA YADAV @New Delhi

THE growth of India's eight core sectors slowed to 7.8% in November — the lowest in the past six months — official data on Friday showed. In October, the corresponding growth rate stood at 12.1%. In November last year, it was at 5.7%, as per data revised by the ministry.

During the period of April to November, the overall production of the core industries recorded a year-on-year growth of 8.6%, as against 8.1% in the same period in the previous fiscal year.

The decline in core sector growth in November can be primarily attributed to the contraction in the cement sector, which saw a year-on-year decline of 3.6%. Only coal and refinery products demonstrated sequential growth.

On the positive side, fiscal deficit shrank to ₹9.1 lakh crore or 50% of the FY24 budget target in April-November FY24 — from ₹9.8 lakh crore in April-November FY23.

During the April-November period of the previous year, fiscal deficit stood at 58.9% of the budget estimates.

The government aims to limit the fiscal deficit for 2023-24 to ₹17.86 lakh crore, equivalent to 5.9% of the GDP. The plan is to eventually bring it under 4.5% of GDP by 2025-26 as part of the fiscal consolidation strategy.

According to Aditi Nayar, Chief Economist with ICRA Ltd, overall the fiscal deficit target of ₹17.9 lakh for FY24 may not be breached.

"However, a lower nominal GDP than what the Union Budget had penciled in, could result in the fiscal deficit printing at 6% of GDP," she said.

FIVE human skeletons have been found in an abandoned house on Old Bengaluru Road near Challakere Gate here.

The police, who found three skeletons on Thursday night, found two more in another room of the house on Friday morning.

The house belonged to retired executive engineer Jagannath Reddy, 80, who hailed from Dodda Siddavvanahalli in Chitradurga taluk. Apart from Jagannath Reddy, his wife Premakka, their daughter Triveni, and sons Krishna Reddy and Narendra Reddy lived in the house, the police said.

The police suspect that the skeletons might be of these persons. However, this will be confirmed only after a thorough examination by the Forensic Science Laboratory.

Jagannath Reddy's family members lived in Tumakuru and Chitradurga and they were not on good terms with their relatives. After the death of Jagannath Reddy's elder son Dr Manjunatha Reddy, his family members shuttled between Tumakuru and Chitradurga, said a close relative of Jagannath Reddy.

Later, they found a skull outside the house and immediately alerted the police. A police team led by DySP P Anilkumar visited the house after Pavan Kumar, a relative of Jagannath Reddy, lodged a complaint. During the search, the police team also found a dog's skeleton. UNIQUE PROGRAMME

'Govt at your doorstep' to resolve woes of citizens

It will be held for ten days from January 3 in citiy's assembly segments

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

DEPUTY Chief Minister DK Shivakumar announced the unique 'Baagilige Bantu Sarakaara, Sevege Irali Sahakaara' (Government at your doorstep to resolve people's issues) programme in Bengaluru.

Addressing the media after a preparatory meeting of the programme at Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP), the DyCM stated that the programme is designed specially to allow Bengalureans to find solutions to issues pertaining to BBMP, BDA, Bescom, BMTC, Revenue and other departments.

He stated that the grievance redressal programme will be held for a period of 10 days starting January 3 in various assembly segments. It allows the public to submit their appeals and petitions. They have to furnish their Aadhaar card or PAN details.

"Hundreds of people come to us with their appeals on a daily basis. This grievance redressal programme aims at taking the government to the people's doorstep, rather than people coming to the government's doorstep," Shivakumar explained.

The programme will be started in two or three assembly segments. The date, time and venue will be announced in advance, he added.

Asked about the structure of the programme, Shivakumar said, "Post the registration process, appeals will be received. There will be hundreds of officials from various departments to look into their grievances on the spot. People can come forward with any type of appeal and we will try to resolve the issues within the legal framework."

"As for complaints about violations of bylaws, we are making separate arrangements. We will scrutinize property measurements and property owners will have to pay taxes accordingly. Officials sealed the defaulting properties. In fact, they have sealed a school of which I am a trustee," he said.

He also spoke about big defaulters and said taxes are very important for a city's development. Asked about which initiative would be taken up first under Brand Bengaluru, he said, "We will issue documents under the Namma Swathu programme."

Spring system to protect buildings from vibrations of UG trains

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

TO reduce the impact of vibrations of trains running on underground tracks on buildings and structures in its vicinity, the Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) plans to install a special safety system on the tracks. This is being planned on 9 km out of the 13.8-km Underground Corridor from Dairy Circle to Nagawara of Phase-2's Pink Line. Director, Projects and Planning, BMRCL, D Radhakrishna Reddy told TNIE, "To attenuate the vibrations, we are going to adopt a Mass Spring System on the underground tracks of the Reach-6 line from Nagawara to Kalena Agrahara. This follows a study conducted by BMRCL to assess the travel of vibrations and their likely impact on structures."

Twin tunnels are being built at a depth of eight to nine metres below ground level. "The tracks are laid at the end of the tunnel and so this is at a depth of 13 metres of 14 metres below the ground. Though this is a considerable depth below the ground, vibrations due to dynamic loads coming into play due to the contact of rail and wheel may travel to the buildings above," Reddy explained.

The study revealed that only 9 km of tracks need to be provided with vibration mitigation measures. "In the Mass Spring System, a special pad of specific elastic characteristics made of Polyurethane material is provided below and on the sides of the track slab. This will completely isolate the track system from the tunnel so that vibrations from the trains are damped significantly before getting transmitted to the tunnel and in turn to the soil strata and to the buildings," the Director explained. The intensity of the vibrations will depend on the characteristics of the Metro track support system, soil strata above the tunnel and the type and condition of the buildings, he added.

"The Mass Spring System will be put in place before the tracks are laid," the official said.

School cleanliness should be part of learning, says SDMC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

AMID a heated debate on school administrations making students clean toilets, School Development and Monitoring Committee's (SDMC) coordination forum suggested that mass sanitation programmes be held across the state. They should involve teachers and students in cleaning washrooms on the premises of their schools.

The forum's official statement read that it strongly condemns the act of making students from a particular caste or community clean toilets and urinals in schools used by everyone. It also called the act an "unforgivable offence" under the Constitution. However, the committee suggested that existing issues should be addressed and a sanitation campaign is launched.

"Teachers expecting outsiders or students from lower castes to clean toilets depicts discrimination. It sends a wrong message to students who come to educational institutions to learn," said the forum. It added that awareness should be created on the fact that cleanliness is an integral part of life and mandatory for all. One should not be of the opinion that it is a subordinate job.

The committee proposed the idea that students, SDMC, guardians and the local government should come together every Saturday and start a cleanliness drive. "School cleanliness should be made part of the learning process and become an integral part of school management," said the monitoring forum.

The initiative is led by educationist VP Niranjanaradhya, who added that the government should also increase the school grants to purchase necessary cleaning equipment like brushes, brooms, phenyl and other chemicals. "The authorities should provide two to three support staff under MNREGA for half a day that can help teachers and children in the cleaning drive." It encourages public figures to become a part of 'Sanitation Saturdays' for wider acceptance.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

THE public can reach home safely and comfortably after New Year celebrations, with the last Metro train from Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Station departing in all four directions at 2.15am on January 1, 2024. The last train from the termini of Nagasandra, Silk Institute, Kadugodi (Whitefield) and Challaghatta will depart at 1.30am on New Year's Day, said an official release.

In an unprecedented move, Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited has decided to shut MG Road Station at 11pm on December 31, in line with an advisory from the police department for safety and security reasons.

The release said no train will stop at MG Road after 11pm, and public entry and exit will be closed. "However, Metro trains will stop at the adjacent stations of Trinity and Cubbon Park as usual," the release said. Trains will run every 15 minutes during extended hours, it said.

During the extended period of travel, return journeys from Trinity and Cubbon Park Metro stations can only be done through paper tickets instead of tokens, QR tickets, smart cards and NCMC cards. Return journey paper tickets priced at Rs 50 will available from 8pm at any Metro station. They will be valid for entry only at Trinity and Cubbon Park Metro stations after 11pm.

The release also appealed to the public to avoid overcrowding at these stations. Those travelling towards Kadugodi can use Trinity Metro Station and those heading towards the other three terminal stations can use Cubbon Park Metro Station, it added.

BWSSB damages road 12 hours after BBMP tars it

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

WITHIN 12 hours after Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) tarred a road, the Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board (BWSSB) dug up the same, thus destroying the tarred road. The incident was reported at Hennur Main Road Junction opposite to Udupi Grand Hotel in BBMP East Zone on Friday morning when morning walkers noticed the newly tarred road damaged. A BWSSB engineer claimed that BBMP officials had given permission to dig the newly asphalted road, but the municipality officials denied giving its nod in writing.

"Valve man Keshava had dug the road for the smooth operation of the water valve. We had taken permission and only a minor damage was done," said the BWSSB official. However, H Srinivas, Assistant Executive Engineer, BBMP, Major Roads (East Division), said the BWSSB had not taken any written permission. "Work was taken up at midnight and was completed. But in the morning we get complaints like this. BWSSB say there was a water valve. We had requested them to be present when the road was being tarred. They did not come and now instead of just making a six inch cut for the valve, the valve man has cut three feet of the road and damaged it," said Srinivas.

He also added that agencies like BWSSB, Bangalore Electricity Supply Company (BESCOM) and other Optical Fibre Companies often dig roads and cause inconvenience.

Lashing at civic agencies for poor coordination, Winkle Mathias, a resident of Hennur Road, said, "When the BBMP finally did it, the BWSSB resorted to dug up the road."

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

30TH December : Yesterday I spoke about what we can do when lunar energies are changing, but we have a lot to do, and can't afford to relax. Astrology assumes that we have the freedom to arrange our own lives, so when the stars are against us there are simple steps we can take. The first is to be more efficient and organise our time more effectively!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Planetary patterns concerning those with major domestic decisions to take, or in the property market, couldn't be better and there's every reason to believe that your dreams will harmonise with financial and practical realities in a most fortuitous way. How pleasant it is to look forward to good fortune.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
On a mundane level, travel, excursions, meetings with friends and social gatherings are all well a spected, yet underlying routine happenings, is the message that you must trust other people more than in the past. Children could be a handful, but you may have to grin and bear it for now!

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
An imaginative interest holds out the possibility of financial rewards. There's even a chance of a windfall through work that you had come to think of as a dead end. Your best time today should be later on, as the Moon reaches the end of its daily pattern.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
There's nothing like the present for snatching some time off between pressing engagements and trying responsibilities. Make the most of pleasurable planetary pictures, especially as other, more stressful pressures, seem to be coming to a final and fruitful end.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
You're not renowned for your skill in keeping secrets. Yet, if a friend has not just entrusted you with some confidential information, they soon will. Respect confidences and be discreet where necessary. After all, you would expect partners to keep your secrets.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Venus is making a supportive aspect to Mercury, your planetary ruler, and you should be feeling perfectly happy with your lot. The only snag is that there will be a number of practical tasks to complete before you can put your feet up. However, the rest, when it comes, will be worth the wait!

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
It may be the weekend but according to your horoscope it's professional status, work, prestige and earnings that are occupying your attention today. The prospect of an increase in your income is high, but it's not a question of luck; you've worked for every penny.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
An enjoyable and deeply creative relationship between Mercury and Venus brings imagination, sensitivity, flair and romantic experiences to the fore, so give mundane chores a rest and indulge your ambitions. Enjoying yourself is not a sin, at least, not this week!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
The Moon forms an intriguing relationship with Venus, a configuration which offers great hopes for all social engagements and emotional attachments as long as you take pains with all practical and apparently trivial details. Profitable news is likely.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
There's little risk of unexpected guests and every chance that the weekend will go as planned. This is an excellent day for quiet get-togethers and civilised outings with close friends and favourite relations. If your hopes are unrealistically high on the other hand, they are unlikely to be met.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
On the whole, the pressures which have been giving you personal and professional troubles have eased, although you're not out of the woods yet. Press ahead with improvements you know can be beneficial in the long run, and don't waste your time on irritating sidelines.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Whatever the circumstances of your life, the planets continue to hold a formation that is so helpful that you really should use the day constructively to bring current projects to a successful close and launch exciting new schemes. It's time to rebuild the foundations of your life.

10-year-old girl falls into pool after suffering electric shock, dies

Residents protest against property management agency; Parents want thorough inquiry

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A 10-year-old girl died after reportedly coming in contact with a live wire at 'Prestige Lakeside Habitat' off Varthur-Gunjur road in the city on Thursday.

Manya Damerla, the victim, who became unconscious after suffering electric shock, fell into the swimming pool and died. The incident happened in the evening when the girl was playing near the pool.

She was rushed to a nearby private hospital, where she was declared brought dead.

Alleging negligence on the part of the property management agency that takes care of maintenance of the apartment, residents staged a protest after the incident till Friday morning, seeking action against it.

Manya was a student of an international school near Dommasandra. Her father Rajesh Kumar Damerla is the founder director and CEO of DLK Megamart Private Ltd. Her mother Vinay Yepuri is the director of the company. Manya was the only daughter of the Damerla couple, who hail from Andhra Pradesh.

"There should be a thorough inquiry into my daughter's death. People, who saw my daughter at the time of the incident, told me that she fell into the pool after suffering electric shock. Somebody tried to save my daughter by giving her a wooden chair and a stick to hold. But by then, she became unconscious. I need justice. Nobody from the maintenance department has approached us yet. Whatever has happened to me should not happen to other parents. I have lost a bright daughter," Rajesh said.

The CCTV footage shows the girl coming down from her flat by a lift at 7.29 pm. Around 7.45 pm, she was found in the pool. By 7.55 pm, she was seen being rushed to hospital. However, there is no CCTV near the place where the incident happened.

A resident, who was part of the protest, said they face many issues in the apartment complex. "Those incharge of maintenance are not ready to accept the blame and are saying that they can act only based on the police investigation report. We pay Rs 10,000 for maintenance," the resident said.

Shivakumar Gunare, Deputy Commissioner of Police (Whitefield), said that a case of unnatural death has been registered at Varthur police station.

Further investigations are on.

Action sought against RSS leader for remark on Muslim women

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

MEMBERS of various organisations staged a protest demanding the immediate arrest of RSS leader Kalladka Prabhakar Bhat for his remark on Muslim women.

"Our foremost objective is clear. We demand the arrest of RSS leader Prabhakar Bhat. The comments he made, particularly targeting women of a marginalised community, are shameful and derogatory. The absence of his arrest is not just a failure but a significant lapse on the part of the government," said one of the over 300 protesters at Freedom Park on Friday.

Rakshita Singh, an advocate, said, "Without action, we will continue to see such situations in the future that will lead to hateful comments against specific genders and marginalised communities. Punishments should be devised to make people reconsider before making such remarks."

She added it goes beyond targeting a specific gender or community and it involves the misuse of freedom of speech to the point where it fosters a hateful environment, jeopardising the safety of a community within their own country.

Sayeda Begum, state secretary, Women India Women, said they were are staging the protest in Bengaluru and the protest will continue statewide until the government and law enforcement take legal action against Bhat.

"His remark has emotionally disturbed our whole community. We elected this government to stand up for our rights but they have miserably failed," Sayeda said.

GOVT TO GIVE INCREMENT, HEALTH INSURANCE FOR GUEST LECTURERS

Those who contribute 15-19 hours of teaching will also get 1 paid leave each month

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

IN a relief for guest faculty in Karnataka, the State Government has asked them to call off their 37-day protest and has accepted several of their demands.

Minister for Higher Education Dr MC Sudhakar on Friday announced that all guest lecturers will receive an increment of Rs 5,000 across all categories, including health insurance, paid leave and a fixed retirement amount. However, the issue of job security was not addressed during the meeting which has left the guest faculty in a bitter spot.

Addressing the media, Dr Sudhakar announced that the State Government will bear the charges of the increment at an estimated annual grant of Rs 68 crore. The revised salary directive will be applicable from January 1, 2024, and instructions have been issued to the department. The minister added that one paid leave will be made available to lecturers each month for those who contribute 15 to 19 hours in teaching. Other demands such as discrimination were noted. "The cases of discrimination of guest faculties with other regular lecturers by college principals were examined and all college principals have been instructed through video conference held on December 12 to treat them with respect," Sudhakar elaborated.

A centralised database will also be created to simplify the process of recruiting guest faculty in colleges and document verification. For those who have rendered their service for more than 10-15 years and are above the age of 60, the State Government will provide a consolidated sum of Rs 50,000 against every year when they retire. For health insurance, Sudhakar said that every month the lecturer has to contribute Rs 400 and an equal amount will be added by the government, which will allow the individuals to have insurance of Rs 5 lakh per annum. An annual grant of Rs 6.53 crore is required to provide this facility.

Adopting a new system, a provision will be made during recruitment and a service weightage of 1% annually will apply to a maximum of 5% for appointment of assistant professors.

Dr Sudhakar emphasised that the above decisions have been taken with an intention and commitment to resolve the problems of guest faculties. "All guest lecturers are requested to attend classes from January 1, 2024. Failing to accept this decision will leave the government to look at alternate measures in the academic interest of the students," he warned.

For over a month, more than 12,372 lecturers working in 430 colleges have been on strike, demanding regularisation of their services.

'Will continue with strike'

Even as several demands, including increment, paid leave and health benefits were announced for guest lecturers after a meeting with Higher Education Minister Dr MC Sudhakar, guest faculty president Hanumanthagowda Kalmani, who boycotted the same, has said that their month-long strike will continue. He said the government has not addressed their demand to regularise their services. "The minister had warned that the government would find alternative ways if we continued with the strike. But we dare him to do it... we will intensify our strike on the lines of Nargund farmers' struggle. Our only demand is regularisation of services by making amendments to the C&R rules," he said. They will launch a 80-km padayatra from Siddaganga Mutt in Tumakuru on January 1.

From being in the Moon's shadow to facing the Sun's heat

PURAN CHOUDHARY

Finish Line 2023

A little over 50 years after its establishment, the Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) received well-deserved recognition. Its achievements not only united 1.4 billion people under one moon but also elevated India's global stand in science and space exploration. India's name resonated on both Earth and in space when the Indian flag left an indelible mark on the lunar surface. From being in the moon's shadow to facing the sun's heat, ISRO accomplished it all in 2023.

Following an unsuccessful Chandrayaan-2 mission in 2019, redemption came on August 23, 2023, when India achieved a soft-landing near the Moon's south pole, making it the sole country to achieve it so far. The country's lunar probe enabled it to join the elite club which comprises the USA, the erstwhile Soviet Union, and China, the only other countries to soft-land on the Moon.

However, the Chandrayaan-3 mission was not just about landing; it conducted technology demonstration experiments, including two surprises – the hop experiment of the Vikram Lander and moving the Propulsion Module from lunar orbit to Earth orbit — both indicating the return-to-Earth capabilities under development. This potentially will help India bring back samples from the Moon the next time around.

The mission's payloads made several scientific discoveries, confirming the presence of sulphur on the lunar surface and generating the first temperature-depth profile of the lunar south polar region.

Chasing the sun was a longer process, but confident in its pursuit, ISRO's Aditya-L1 became the first Indian space-based observatory to study the Sun from a halo orbit around the first Sun-Earth Lagrangian point (L1), located roughly 1.5 million km from Earth. According to recent reports, the space agency successfully placed Aditya-L1 in the L1 point.

Other achievements of the space agency included ongoing tests for the Ganganyaan Mission, which aims to demonstrate human spaceflight capability by launching a crew of three members into an orbit of 400 km altitude in a 3-day mission and bringing them safely back to Earth by landing in the ocean. In 2023, India also joined the ambitious Artemis Accords led by the US, aiding in sharing data, findings, and resources for the Moon mission.

In private space, ISRO began on a positive note by launching 36 satellites for the OneWeb constellation. The space agency also assisted Agnikul Cosmos in opening the first private launch facility inside its compound and supported a robust new space policy to help solve issues using space tech in various sectors. Meanwhile, India's highest-funded space tech startup, Skyroot Aerospace, is working to develop an orbital-class rocket. The autonomous landing test of the Reusable Launch Vehicle prototype (RLV-TD) marked another significant milestone toward sustainable space travel.

In the coming years, as India turns a corner in space exploration, ISRO braces to face the challenges of the country's ambitious plan to set up a Bharatiya Antriksha Station by 2035 and send an Indian to the moon by 2040, along with executing multiple space-bound flights in 2024.

HISTORIC MOMENTS

Prayaan rover travels a distance to click a photo of the Vikram lander on the lunar surface. Meanwhile, the Vikram lander clicks the imprints of the rover taking a 'moonwalk.'

Solar Ultraviolet Imaging Telescope (SUIT) onboard the Aditya-L1 captures mesmerising never seen full-disk images of the Sun in wavelengths ranging from 200 to 400nm.

UPCOMING PROJECTS

NISAR will map the entire globe in 12 days and provide spatially and temporally consistent data for understanding changes in Earth's ecosystems, ice mass, vegetation biomass, and sea level rise

XPoSat (X-ray Polarimeter Satellite) is India's first dedicated polarimetry mission to study various dynamics of bright astronomical X-ray sources in extreme conditions. The spacecraft will carry two scientific payloads in a low earth orbit.

Gaganyaan Mission will demonstrate human spaceflight capability by launching a crew of 3 members to an orbit of 400 km for a 3-day mission and bringing them back safely to earth, by landing in the ocean.

Ahead of LS elections, demand for more DyCMs comes to fore again

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE issue of appointing more deputy chief ministers in Karnataka refuses to die down with PWD Minister Satish Jarkiholi meeting Congress top brass leaders in New Delhi recently.

Though the senior minister claimed that he discussed strategies to be followed by the party to face the 2024 Lok Sabha elections, informed sources told TNIE that chances of him suggesting to the high command to appoint DyCMs from the SCs/STs and Veerashaiva-Lingayat communities ahead of the LS polls cannot be ruled out. The Grand Old Party (GOP), which has to face the BJP-JDS combine in the polls, is likely to work on the caste arithmetic to counter PM Modi's charisma, sources added.

Karnataka Home Minister Dr G Parameshwara in Tumakuru on Friday clarified that there is nothing wrong in Satish suggesting to the high command to appoint more DyCMs. "Everyone in the party can express their opinion. There might be logic in his suggestion that giving representation to all communities would help the Congress in the polls. Ultimately, the high command will analyse this and take a call," he added.

It may be noted here that Parameshwara, Satish and Large Scale Industries Minister MB Patil are in the race to become DyCMs if the high command creates more such posts.

The BJP that had promised DyCM post to ST Nayaka leader B Sriramulu did not do it and the Congress can capitalise on the same as Satish has been emerging as the community's strong leader, political pundits opined.

When asked about the issue, MB Patil clarified that the issue will be discussed within the party. "Satish in the past also had demanded for the creation of more DyCM posts. I will not express my opinion in public. I will speak to the party high command," he clarified.

DKS-Naidu airport meet sparks speculation

THE meeting between Karnataka Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar and TDP supremo N Chandrababu Naidu on the tarmac of Bengaluru's HAL Airport on Thursday created ripples in political circles in the wake of the 2024 Assembly elections in neighbouring Andhra Pradesh.

The duo met as Naidu landed at the airport to head to his home constituency, Kuppam, while Shivakumar was on the way to Nagpur to attend the Congress Formation Day celebrations. The video of the duo exchanging pleasantries shared by Shivakumar on social media has since gone viral.

Shivakumar, who took up the mission of ensuring Congress' victory in the recent Telangana polls, is likely to be given the task of winning some seats for the Congress in Andhra Pradesh, said an informed source. "Since the Congress has no MLA in Andhra Pradesh, the party may either ally with the TDP or go to poll with an understanding with like-minded parties," said the source, adding that the TDP's decision not to fight the recent Telangana polls helped the Congress win the state.

Shivakumar was also instrumental in YSR Telangana Party — led by the daughter of former Andhra Pradesh CM YS Rajashekar Reddy, YS Sharmila — from not contesting the polls. Similarly, he may chalk out a strategy to unite the Opposition against the ruling YSR Congress Party led by CM YS Jagan Mohan Reddy. Sharmila was reportedly ready to merge her party with the Congress ahead of the polls in Telangana. "Since Sharmila has differences with her brother Jagan Mohan Reddy, she is likely to join the platform against him if promised a key role," observed a political analyst.

₹1K cr action plan to be readied for minority housing colonies

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah on Friday instructed officials to formulate an action plan of Rs 1,000 crore to develop housing colonies for minorities. "A huge number of applications have been received online for various schemes of minorities, and it was decided to provide more grants from next year," Siddaramaiah stated, while reviewing the progress of minority welfare and housing departments.

On the housing front, he suggested that the areas where minorities are mostly settled should be identified and allocation of grants made.

The construction of 1.31 lakh houses has been completed, against a target of 3 lakh houses in the current year under various housing schemes, he said, and directed officials to take steps to complete 1.6 lakh houses by March.

The 1.8 lakh houses were in progress under various schemes under the Slum Development Board and the government decided to bear Rs 5 lakh as gratuity for beneficiaries, as the cabinet took a decision to grant Rs 500 crore for this. He suggested that 25,000 houses which are under completion be completed by the end of February. Rajiv Gandhi Housing Corporation has Rs 2,133 crore available and the proposal should be placed before the cabinet, he said.

In the wake of suspension of the scholarship given by the Central government to minority students, Siddaramaiah said the State government has decided to bear this and is ready to release scholarships to 6.4 lakh students, as Rs 60 crore has been allocated in the budget. He suggested paying an additional Rs 40 crore by redistributing it from funds available in the department.

"The proposal for immediate release of Rs 500 crore to complete 1.82 lakh homes under the Slum Development Board had been agreed upon in the cabinet. The department has allocated Rs 60 crore out of Rs 100 crore proposed for the development of minority colonies, with the remaining Rs 40 crore to be utilized for various purposes through the finance department," informed Housing Minister Zameer Ahmed Khan who took part in the meeting.

DAVANAGERE: Union Parliamentary Affairs Minister Pralhad Joshi on Friday said that members of the BJP should stop airing their concerns in public. MB Patil takes a dig at BJP over Yatnal's charges

BENGALURU: Industries Minister MB Patil on Friday hit out at the Bharatiya Janata Party saying there seems to be to be an element of truth in MLA Basanagouda Patil Yatnal's allegations as the BJP has not taken any action against him. "BJP has become so weak internally that it has been unable to take any action against Yatnal even though he has been hurling such accusations for five years," Patil said responding to reporters' question. Stating that Congress has nothing to do with Yatnal, the minister said the BJP may be hesitant to take action as he may have enough information about irregularities during the BJP rule. Even during the BJP core committee meeting, they could not decide on taking action against Yatnal, he said. The minister said procurement and financial transactions during the Covid-19 pandemic when the BJP was in power will be probed and facts will be placed before people. The Industries Minister said there was tough competition among states in India and also globally to attract investments and any state is not inevitable for industrialists. Kannada activists should consider that such incidents go viral and investors may think twice before deciding on investing here, he added. He also stated that his department would issue an advisory soon regarding Kannada usage. He said there was no compromise in adhering to rules about Kannada usage, but no one should take the law into their own hands. ENS

Delay in nod for Lokayukta probe unacceptable: CM

BENGALURU: Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, who held a meeting of senior government officials on Friday on the delay in granting permission for Lokayukta investigations, directed the chief secretary to take immediate action in this regard. "Collect information from all departments and send it to the Lokayukta," he said. Siddaramaiah said the delay in granting permission for Lokayukta investigations into various cases is not acceptable as it would send a wrong message. "So take quick decisions and send the orders to the Lokayukta," he said. Deputy Chief Secretary to Chief Minister LK Atheik was among those who attended the meeting. ENS

Friction between Kerala CM, Guv played out during swearing-in of 2 new ministers

ENS @ T'Puram

THE occasion was the swearing-in of two ministers in the LDF Government, in Kerala. But the overall mood of the function was quite silly – to say the least, as what grabbed the attention was the childish behaviour of two prominent personalities on the stage.

If Governor Arif Mohammed Khan behaved like a grumpy child refusing even to acknowledge CM Pinarayi Vijayan, the latter responded with equal aloofness. As if that was not enough, the CM and majority of his cabinet colleagues even boycotted the tea party hosted by the governor.

The two were sharing the dais for the first time after the recent tiff, and their behaviour reflected the political drama that has been unfolding for last few weeks. With the governor accepting December 29 - the date proposed by the CM for the swearing-in without any hiccups, there was hope of thaw in the strained relationship.

But that was not the case. The CM, who arrived at Raj Bhavan with his wife and sat in the front row with other cabinet colleagues after wishing the newly designated minister Ramachandran Kadannappalli and K B Ganesh Kumar.

The governor arrived a few minutes later, made it very clear that he was not in the mood to relent with his indifference.

The CM followed the governor and sat next to him. Though Pinarayi kept his cool and looked rather relaxed, he too refused to acknowledge the other. The two did not utter a word until the function ended.

Maha Kannada schoolbooks have detailed info on Karnataka history

CA ITNALMATH @ Belagavi/ Athani

THE syllabus of Maharashtra government Kannada schools (MGKS) seems to contain more information about Kannada language, history, culture and traditions, than that of Karnataka government Kannada schools (KGKS). Important information with links to Karnataka or the Kannada language, which has been skipped in the KGKS syllabus, has been covered by books of MGKS, according to teachers of government Kannada schools of both states.

The syllabus covered by books of students from Class 1 to 7 in MGKS covers the history of Vijayapura's Gol Gumbaz, Hampi, Basaveshwara's life history, poem on Jog waterfall, and farmer poems recognised by the Karnataka government, like 'Negilayogi', the life history of vachana researcher PG Halakatti, noted Kannada writers Shivaram Karanth, Dinkar Desai and other important information linked to Karnataka and Kannada. MGKS books for Classes 8 to 10 covers the history of Sir Visvesvaraya, theatre artiste Yenagi Balappa, Belur and Halebid, vachanas of Akkamahadevi, Muktayakka, Sarvadya and more.

Former MGKS textbook committee chairman AK Pattar told TNIE that the Maharashtra State Textbook Committee and Research Centre of Pune had formed a special team to conduct thorough research on Kannada language, culture, tradition and history. Based on that study, the syllabus of government Kannada schoolbooks of Maharashtra was drawn up. Before publishing books under the new syllabus, more than 60 Kannada subject teachers were invited for a three-day seminar, during which discussions and debates in connection with the new syllabus of Kannada books were held. He said that suggestions in favour of the new syllabus were also welcomed by the teachers.

Only after the seminar was complete, the final touch was given to the new syllabus and after it was approved by the Maharashtra government, the books were published, said Pattar, whose name is printed on the books.

Noted Kannada activist Ashok Chandargi lauded the efforts of the Maharashtra government education department in publishing Kannada schoolbooks after such thorough research. He appreciated the neighbouring state for not allowing political issues to interfere in the education system. This can build more healthy relations between Kannada and Marathi speaking people, Chandargi concluded.

BANKS NEED MORE ROBUST VIGIL AGAINST CYBER FRAUD

CYBER frauds are bedevilling India's banking system like never before. Despite the banks' claims of setting up robust systems and anti-fraud teams to constantly monitor transactions, the number of frauds is skyrocketing. A recent Reserve Bank report said that reported cases of card- and internet-based frauds have multiplied several times to 12,069 in the first half of the current financial year; they occupy the lion's share of the 14,483 fraud cases reported in all. Card and cyber frauds during the period involved transactions of ₹630 crore, against ₹87 crore in first half of the previous year.

Ever since the inception of National Payments Corporation in 2008 by the RBI to streamline retail payment systems in the country, India has reported a remarkable transformation from a predominantly cash-based economy to a digital payments leader. Most of the growth came in the last few years, thanks to the rapidly expanding smart-phone penetration, less expensive internet access, user-friendly digital apps and low-cost payment gateways. The United Payments Interface (UPI) that enables instant transfers between bank accounts using a mobile phone has been the prime contributor to India's vibrant digital payments ecosystem. The government says India now accounts for nearly 40 percent of global real-time digital payments, with the country's digital transactions value being more than the combined value of the US, UK, Germany and France. At the same time, there needs to be a constant vigil on fraudsters and imposters. The RBI recently found a series of compliance violations by banks that included the failure in reporting and misclassifying fraud cases. The central bank imposed penalties on several prominent banks including ICICI, Kotak and SBI. ICICI Bank, for example, faced one of the highest penalties in recent times, amounting to ₹12.2 crore.

There are no shortcuts in the fight against fraudsters, who continue to device innovative ploys to trick bank customers. Banks need to be on their toes. The central bank has continued to highlight the critical need to safeguard the banking and payment systems from the growing threat. Frauds within the banking sector also pose risks to reputation and operations, potentially eroding customer trust and carrying implications for financial stability, the RBI report notes. While setting up strong systems, banks need to improve the customer services they provide to the victims of such frauds.

KERALA CABINET RESET A MISSED OPPORTUNITY

AT the mid-point of its five-year tenure, the LDF government in Kerala has gone for a minor Cabinet reshuffle with two ministers going out and two coming in. The change was not a surprise as it follows an agreement made after the CPM-led front won an unprecedented second term in 2021. The pact was meant to ensure Cabinet representation to even those constituents who have a single MLA. Antony Raju of the Democratic Kerala Congress and Ahammad Devarkovil of the Indian National League were made ministers in 2021 with the understanding that they would make way for K B Ganesh Kumar of Kerala Congress (B) and Ramachandran Kadannappally of Congress (S) after two-and-a-half years.

This reshuffle has also added two experienced members to the Cabinet. The lack of experience was deemed one of the biggest drawbacks of the Pinarayi Vijayan government in its second term. With both CPM and CPI choosing to go for fresh faces, the Cabinet that took oath in 2021 was filled with first-time ministers. The current ministry is a pale shadow of the previous Pinarayi Vijayan Cabinet in experience and proficiency. That is evident in the government's performance in its second term. Financial distress and unresponsive ministers have hurt the government's image. In an assessment this newspaper carried out with the help of a panel of experts in May 2023, when the government completed two years, most ministers scored low on many of the parameters.

Ganesh Kumar has been a minister twice and is said to have turned around the state-owned public transport company, KSRTC, when he was transport minister in the A K Antony government. This time too he has been entrusted with the transport portfolio and KSRTC is passing through its biggest crisis ever. Ramachandran has also been a minister twice and was in the earlier Pinarayi Vijayan government.

The reshuffle comes at a time the government is battling a serious image crisis. So, instead of keeping the exercise minimal, the chief minister could have gone for some critical changes, at least a substantial overhaul of portfolios, to show that he means business. This government needs a course correction and this was an opportunity. A few more new names and a reshuffle of crucial portfolios could have helped induce some vigour into a dull Cabinet. But, alas, that was not to be.

QUICK TAKE

KEEP SIGNS IN COMMON TONGUE TOO

KARNATAKA CM Siddaramaiah has said his government will ensure that 60 percent of space on signboards is reserved for Kannada. Such linguistic chauvinism is not new. After all, our states were reorganised in the 1950s-60s mainly on the basis of language. Patti Sriramalu's fast unto death for the Andhra cause in 1952 forced the central government to make Andhra Pradesh the first state to be reorganised on the basis of language. But a global hub like Bengaluru should also leave space for a lingua franca like English or some other language. Any city that thrusts a language on others would deter migrant workers and tourists.

ISRO has laid an exciting roadmap for using space missions in the service of science and society. It can now nurture the nascent Indian space industry

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

THE Indian space programme has fired the country's imagination and gained respect in the international community with some of its recent achievements. The list is quite long and starts with the landing close to the lunar south pole. Meanwhile, preparations for Gaganyaan—India's first manned space mission—is on in full swing and will surely enthuse and inspire a generation of young people to take up careers in science and technology.

The moon mission was exciting not just because of the successful touchdown, but also the technological capabilities it demonstrated. The mission handled unplanned experiments such as the lander hopping from the initial touchdown point—a manoeuvre that could be essential for a future mission's ability to re-launch from the lunar surface. The propulsion module was brought back to the Earth's orbit from the lunar one—another capability important for the future.

All this is part of a vision to ramp up the scope of India's space missions. S Somanath, chairman of the Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO), recently presented a roadmap to the government. It included having an Indian space station module by 2028 and a crewed landing on the lunar surface by 2040. Also being planned are follow-up missions such as Chandrayaan 4, Mangalyaan 2, a Venus Orbiter Mission, and newer technologies and heavier launch vehicles. The idea is to increase payload capacities and get better scientific outcomes from interplanetary missions.

Outside the ambit of government-led space activities, India has witnessed a tremendous interest in space entrepreneurship—over $250 million of capital has been raised by space start-ups in the last three years. The government has responded to it by creating an Indian National Space Promotion and Authorisation Centre or IN-SPACe, an agency that would interface between ISRO and non-governmental entities.

Indian space programme, which for several decades has largely been focused on civilian applications, is now looking at defence applications too. Mission DefSpace, which is being coordinated by Innovations For Defence Excellence or iDEX, has started introducing challenges aimed at encouraging the indigenous design, development and manufacture of space technologies that can serve defence needs. This initiative has served as an R&D co-investment pathway for the Indian space industry.

Jitendra Singh, the Union minister overseeing science and technology, atomic energy and space, has projected India's space economy to grow to $40 billion by 2040 from the estimated $8 billion now.

With all these exciting developments, the country finds itself at a crossroads where several actions need to be taken for the entire ecosystem to mature and reach the ambitious goals.

One of the key challenges is how support would be given to the Indian industry to move from being vendors in providing manufacturing support to ISRO to independently building spacecraft and launching vehicles. Only such complete competence will allow the Indian industry to be a serious contender in the global market. Several start-ups are trying their best to get investments to develop technologies to have spacecraft and launch vehicles built. However, these start-ups are yet to gain momentum in the form of getting domestic contracts. Such an anchor-tenant-based support system is critical in a sovereign interest area such as space—it would help the local industry mature to have command over the intellectual property required to realise space missions.

The Indian space programme has been formed on the basis of serving citizens with the necessary applications while exploiting outer space to improve quality of life. It's now time for this charter to be renewed to include a larger focus on interplanetary, robotic and crewed missions. The government needs to support the ramp-up of capabilities in futuristic technologies and science missions including crewed ones; at the same time, it needs to come up with a clear roadmap for engaging the industry for the routine missions that are needed to serve societal applications.

A good example of this are the steps being taken in the realm of launch vehicles with the Indian industry consortium now starting to own the entire realisation of the polar satellite launch vehicle. This will hopefully help increase the number of launches India is able to conduct—from the current 6-8 a year to multiples of the numbers.

This would allow ISRO to focus on the development of new launch vehicle technologies—including vehicle reusability—to further reduce the cost of missions. This would be a very challenging thing for the Indian industry to handle by itself.

As things happen now, ISRO engages with the government to plan its missions for societal applications, which are then funded by the government. One of the templates for the government to consider is for ISRO to move into a project management role and for it to become an interface between the end user and the industry to systematically allow the Indian industry to mature.

The end users may be asked to fund such missions through ISRO's management of these contracts. This will allow the industry to get access to local demand in spacecraft realisation. Its success at this would make the industry a serious contender for global contracts. This will also allow ISRO to then focus exclusively on science, interplanetary orbiters, robotics and crewed missions where uncertainties are much higher.

The current focus of the defence space initiative is heavily oriented towards co-funding R&D at the sub-system level. The defence ministry needs to review the space-based services it is procuring from foreign sources and come up with a plan to localise them. Small satellites that can be realised and launched by Indian companies could be a good start in indigenising services that are currently being procured internationally.

It's a fortuitous time to be around to witness several great feats being achieved by the Indian space programme. We now need to double up on this momentum to scale up globally.

NEW CRIMINAL LAWS TAKE ONE STEP AHEAD, TWO BACK

AMAN LEKHI

Senior advocate to the Supreme Court and former Additional Solicitor General

DISCOURS is a deliberative and consultative democracy where a mere vote of approval is not the test of validity of enactments. The process requires both effective public consultation and due deliberation by the legislature before the enactment of laws. The method by which the new criminal law amendments have been brought about is at a wide distance from both the consultation and debate necessary.

The government has acted contrary to its own policy mandating pre-legislative scrutiny. It contemplates setting out the policy problem, making provision for supporting evidence and analysis, and considering the options and reasons for the choices. Not only has this policy been abandoned, but even the terms of reference of the committee initially engaged to consider the re-codification—at the time of the Covid shutdown—are not known, nor are the discussions purportedly undertaken by it in the public domain.

One example of the offhand approach of this committee is the shocking way in which it dealt with the offence of mob lynching. Despite being an aggravated form of murder, it was astoundingly made punishable with merely seven years of imprisonment. This shows a witless way of dealing with laws despite their effect on intergenerational policy. The shallowness of the committee's work should have been an indication to exercise caution. Not only was there no restraint, but the standing committee to which the bills were referred completed its deliberations on three major enactments covering the entire universe of criminal law in barely two months; the legislations were passed merely by voice vote.

The basis for bringing about the changes is itself misconceived. It has been argued that India needed to be rid of "colonial baggage". Yet, paradoxically, the very opacity of colonial rule that entails giving short shrift to elementary democratic requirements is patently manifest in the exercise undertaken. The existing system is undeserving of this obloquy—the finest principles of legal jurisprudence assuring Indians of substantive protection were actively enforced under the old laws to make the method of dealing qualitatively different from enforcement under the colonial rule.

Even the offence of sedition under the old law was different from how it was used by the British against freedom fighters such as Lokmanya Tilak—the Indian Supreme Court discarded the interpretation of the Privy Council and gave it a restrictive meaning. It is indeed strange that a government that was never shy of invoking the offence of sedition is now making a virtue of the provision's deletion. This is utter hypocrisy, more so because the offence continues in the new code in a different avatar. It is now loosely expressed in violation of the basic principles behind the enactment of penal provisions, which mandate clarity in exposition and precision in objective.

It has to be remembered that the exercise undertaken in revising the laws is one of re-codification. Re-codification entails not merely reformatting of old laws but aligning them with developments over time to remove redundancy or conflict with the evolved understanding of law. This aspect of re-codification is present in a few instances such as the deletion of adultery and thuggery, the introduction of new offences of mob lynching and variants of hate speech, and the rendering of certain sections gender-neutral.

TWITTER

> The new laws were adopted in a hurried manner without adequate scrutiny. Some provisions, such as the one on sedition, are a step back from colonial laws and jurisprudence. In a sedition case against Lokmanya Tilak, the Indian Supreme Court had discarded the Privy Council's interpretation and restricted the meaning

But the process collapses when dealing with political crime. Political crime directly affects human and civil rights. The concerns are both in the substantive law and procedural law. The latter, for example, permits a far-reaching intrusion into individual liberty by granting a more extensive and elastic discretion to detain an individual free of the checks on the abuse of this power, which were present in the so-called colonial laws. It now permits preliminary inquiry before registration of FIR, diluting the mandate on the police to immediately act on the information except in certain well-defined categories; the preliminary inquiry is now not limited to any defined situation as in the past, leaving it to the police to decide when and how it would be undertaken.

Similarly, under the substantive penal law, a person can be detained for not obeying the instructions of police. There is also a provision for preventive detention enlarging upon the factors justifying this patently unjustified exercise of state power.

The substituted version of the offence of sedition has an indeterminate test of "feelings of separatist activities" without providing any defined standard for attracting this element. In incorporating the offence of "terrorism", the very basis of distinction of the offence (dealing with "security of state") from ordinary penal offences (dealing with "law and order", and hence of less gravity) has been obliterated; no indication of the circumstances in which the choice would be exercised has been given. The absence of guidelines is made more glaring because the safeguards available under the special statute are absent in the ordinary law despite the offence being identically worded in both. There is, in fact, duplication of offences which is nothing but over-criminalisation.

The amended criminal laws are an instance of re-codification being used for purposes it was not meant. The steps do not entail an advance from the past, nor an evolution which is conducive and good; there is a retreat from spaces of reform where the existing jurisprudence aligned with an enlightened understanding of the legal process.

To be resolute without reflection can only lead to calamity and catastrophe. This warning is even more relevant when the motivation is to alter a settled application of law. Law is no plaything in the hands of a political establishment, and is not to be fiddled with except for good cause. It is unfortunate that this is not the way we have proceeded to bring about this re-codification.

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi is scheduled to visit Ayodhya on December 30, three weeks before the idol of Ram Lalla is placed in the new Ayodhya temple. This visit is significant as it precedes the inauguration of several developmental projects worth over ₹15,000 crore, including an international airport.

The centrepiece of Modi's visit is the inauguration of the 'Maharishi Valmiki International Airport Ayodhya Dham', marking it as the fifth international airport in Uttar Pradesh. Another highlight is the opening of the Ayodhya Dham Junction railway station, constructed with over ₹240 crore. This modern three-storey station is equipped with advanced facilities like elevators, escalators, food plazas, and child care rooms, reflecting the government's commitment to accessible and green-certified infrastructure.

Furthermore, Modi's agenda includes flagging off two Amrit Bharat trains, introducing a new category of superfast passenger trains in India. He will also launch six new Vande Bharat trains, significantly boosting the nation's rail connectivity. These trains will connect various parts of the country, including Ayodhya to Anand Vihar terminal, Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Katra to New Delhi, and more.

The PM's commitment to enhancing India's rail network is further exemplified as he dedicates three significant railway projects in the region, worth ₹2,300 crore. These projects are crucial for the improvement of travel and transportation in and around Ayodhya.

In a grand public programme, Modi is set to launch various developmental projects valued at over ₹15,700 crore in Uttar Pradesh. The allocation includes ₹11,100 crore for development of Ayodhya and vicinity, and around ₹4,600 crore for other projects across the state.

Additionally, the PM will initiate the development and beautification of tourist facilities along the banks of Ayodhya, including Naya Ghat to Laxman Ghat, and the construction of a visitors' gallery for events like Deepotsav. He will launch an ambitious Greenfield township project valued at over ₹2,180 crore and the Vashishtha Kunj Residential Scheme, estimated at around ₹300 crore.

'Gag order': Cong in a fix over temple

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

AMID reports that Congress parliamentary party chairperson Sonia Gandhi will attend the Ram temple consecration on January 22, the party on Friday said it will decide it at an "appropriate time".

The high command has also asked senior leaders to desist from openly issuing statements on the temple invitation. Though Congress leadership has not clarified its stand on the issue, several state leaders have been speaking in different voices, to the party's chagrin.

Speaking to reporters in the capital, senior Congress leader and Maharashtra-in-charge Ramesh Chennithala said the leaders were instructed not to speak publicly on the matter. When asked if top leaders will accept the invitation extended to attend the Ram temple ceremony, Chennithala said, "High command has asked all leaders not to air our opinions publicly on the matter. The leadership will announce the decision at the right time."

Confirming that Congress chief Mallikarjun Kharge and Sonia Gandhi have been invited to the ceremony, AICC general secretary Jairam Ramesh told reporters that it will decide at an "appropriate time" on whether the leaders will attend or not. "A decision will be taken at an appropriate time, and communicated at an appropriate time," said Ramesh.

Congress' Lok Sabha leader Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury has also been invited to the ceremony. The Ram Janmabhoomi Teerth Kshetra Trust sent invitations to the leaders for the event to be held on January 22.

Ramesh also chose to distance himself from the remarks of senior leader Sam Pitroda saying that it is not an official statement of the Congress Party.

Early this week, Pitroda stoked controversy by saying that unemployment and inflation are more real issues than the Ram temple. However, Congress has not welcomed Pitroda's statements. "Sam Pitroda's statement is not an official statement of Congress, he doesn't speak on behalf of the party," said Ramesh.

Pitroda had said that religion should be separated from politics. "I have no problem with any religion. It is okay to go visit the temple once in a while, but you can't make that the main platform. Modi is everybody's Prime Minister and not the Prime Minister of one party, and that's the message the people of India want him to give," he had said.

The remarks invited criticism from Union minister Dharmendra Pradhan and other senior leaders.

Besides Pitroda, senior leader Shashi Tharoor has also been consistently attacking the BJP over the politicisation of the ceremony. In an X post, Tharoor wrote, "The inauguration of Ayodhya's Ram temple on January 22 and then the event of BAPS Hindu temple in Abu Dhabi will set the stage for the 2024 election, predicting that the election dates will be called very soon thereafter... The message is clear. In 2009, Mr Modi was sold to the Indian electorate as the avatar of economic development, the CEO of Gujarat Inc, who would bring development to all Indians. In 2019, with that narrative collapsing in the wake of the disastrous demonetisation, the Pulwama terrorist attack gave Modi the opportunity to convert the general election into a national security election," Tharoor said.

"In 2024, it is clear the BJP will now revert to its core message and offer Narendra Modi to the nation as a Hindu Hriday Samrat," he added.

Facing heat from state units and allies, the Congress is in a quandary over accepting the invitation to attend the grand ceremony. Several INDIA partners such as CPM, CPI, TMC, Shiv Sena (UBT), RJD, and JD(U) will skip the event.

Party distances itself from Pitroda's remarks

Congress general secretary Jairam Ramesh also chose to distance himself from the remarks of senior leader Sam Pitroda, saying that it is not the party's official stance. Earlier this week, Pitroda said that unemployment and inflation are more real issues than the Ram temple. However, Congress has not welcomed his statements. "Pitroda's statement is not an official statement of Congress, he doesn't speak on behalf of the party," Ramesh said.

BJP embarks on 'Agenda-24' to win 400 seats

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

THE BJP has set an ambitious target of winning 350-400 Lok Sabha seats. The party is learnt to have prepared a roadmap 'Agenda-24' for the 2024 general election.

It's all hands on deck for the party in the aftermath of its two-day meeting of national office-bearers recently. All state units and front outfits are told to ensure the implementation of 'Agenda-24' in a mission mode by March-April.

Senior party sources said four Lok Sabha constituencies have been clubbed into one cluster. Each cluster has been given an in-charge to supervise the party's activities ahead of the general election.

"The BJP is making deep inroads into the hinterland of Hindustan with its ideology of 'nation first' and 'vision 2047 of Viksit-Bharat'. The party is working to win a record number of more than 350-400 seats," said a senior functionary while elaborating on Agenda-24.

The party has scientifically prepared clusters of constituencies in all states.

"Party workers and leaders equipped with the report card of the Modi government's 9-year performances have launched a personal contact campaign," said a source.

Party insiders say at least 120 senior leaders holding important posts within the organisation have been assigned the tasks of monitoring the clusters.

The cluster in-charges are regularly monitoring the implementation of Agenda-24 with state in-charges, state president of party, Lok-Sabha convenor and 'vistarak-padadhikaris' (extension officers) across the country.

As part of Agenda-24, the party is forming state election management committees and carrying out a very scientific analysis of each booth of parliamentary constituencies.

The analysis will devote considerable space to social equations and local issues keeping in view the results of previous Lok Sabha elections. "It is trying to underscore weak points. The party's seven Morchas are carrying out massive outreaches" said a BJP insider.

"For example, OBC (Other Backward Communities) Morcha is working on OBC-related issues, the SC Morcha on SC-related matters and the women's front on woman-specific issues to take the Modi Ki Guarantee'' to each household," said an office-bearer.

The BJP will do wall paintings at each booth while senior leaders will soon undertake 'pravas'(stay) across 120 clusters where they will meet prominent people and hold discussions on government policies and performances. The leaders will share with people the party's vision for the nation.

A series of activities have been planned in each LS constituency. "Election offices are to be opened by January 30 or the first week of February 2024. In a bid to push further, the party is organising meetings of social media influencers in each zone. A workers' conference has also been planned across all Lok Sabha seats.

Navy unveils design for Admirals' epaulettes reflecting Shivaji legacy

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

FOLLOWING Prime Minister Narendra Modi's announcement earlier this month, the Indian Navy has unveiled new epaulettes, reflecting the legacy of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, for the top three Admirals.

Rajmudra (royal stamp) of Chhatrapati Shivaji, along with the Indian sword, telescope and golden buttons will replace the existing sword and baton.

Taking to X, the Navy said, "As we usher in the new year 2024, Indian Navy proudly unveils the new design of Admirals' epaulettes. Announced by @PMOIndia during Navy Day 2023 at Sindhudurg, the seal in the new design, drawn from the naval ensign and inspired from Rajmudra of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, is a reflection of our rich maritime heritage."

Adoption of the new design reaffirms the country's commitment to the two pillars of 'Panch Pran' — 'Virasat Par Garv' and 'Ghulami ki Mansikta se Mukti' — the Navy said, adding, "Bharatiya Nausena embracing Bharatiyata in letter and spirit."

On December 4, Modi had stated that seeking inspiration from Chhatrapati Shivaji, the country is moving forward, leaving behind the slave mentality. "I am glad that now a glimpse of the legacy of Chhatrapati Veer Shivaji Maharaj is also going to be seen in the epaulettes worn by our Naval officers. The new epaulettes will also now be similar to the insignia of the Navy," he had said.

The ranks of the sailors are also in for change. In September 2022, the Navy had adopted a new ensign containing the octagonal seal of the Maratha kingdom, also inspired by the maritime prowess of Maratha king Shivaji Maharaj.

Last year, the Navy had changed its ensign by replacing the red St George's Cross linked with the colonial past, with a blue octagonal shape and the national emblem sitting atop an anchor, superimposed on a shield with the Navy's motto, 'Sham Noh Varuna' (Be auspicious unto us Oh Varuna).

Finish Line 2023

YEAR OF INFECTIONS

COVID is back yet again, even before curtains could be drawn over 2023. However, the year would be remembered for the rise of several other infections and viruses as well.

From dengue, leptospirosis (rat fever), measles, H1N1, respiratory syncytial virus, nipah and zika, India reported it all.

The most concerning and burning issue of all was how the young are dying of sudden heart attacks! Headlines were made when in Gujarat, during the garba that marked the Navratri festivities, 10 people, including one as young as 17 years, died of sudden heart attack within 24 hours.

This prompted Union Health Minister Mansukh Mandaviya to caution people, especially those who suffered from severe Covid-19 infections, not to exert themselves too much while exercising and to stay away from hard labour for some time.

Prompted by concerns about a potential link between Covid-19 infection and Covid vaccination, the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) conducted a multi-centric case-control study on sudden deaths among young adults in India and found that vaccination did not increase the risk of premature deaths. The study said vaccination was a mitigating factor, reducing sudden deaths in the 18-45 age group.

A study by LocalCircles, India's leading community social media platform, also found that more young people are experiencing brain stroke, cardiac arrests, and heart attacks in India since the Covid-19 outbreak.

Another rising disease burden is diabetes. An ICMR study found that India is sitting on a diabetes time bomb. It said that there are an estimated 101 million people in India who have diabetes, 136 million prediabetes, and 315 million people were diagnosed with hypertension.

According to Dr V Mohan, chairman of Madras Diabetes Research Foundation (MDRF), which collaborated with the Indian ICMR for the first-of-its-kind national survey, India will be the 'diabetes capital of the world' in five years.

However, much of the year saw Indians suffering for weeks, some even for months, with cough, cold, runny nose, fever, sore throat, muscle pain, body chills, fatigue and headaches. The viral infection was so severe that it left many patients exhausted physically and mentally. The flu cases with Covid-like symptoms were due to Influenza A subtype H3N2, which circulated widely in India and led to hospitalisations.

According to Dr Rajeev Jayadevan, co-chairman of the National Indian Medical Association Covid Task Force, in the past 12 months, the world noticed a rise in several types of infections besides Covid-19, and India was no exception. "Speculations apart, there is little evidence that Covid-19 might have directly led to these infections. However, it is clear that the pandemic played an indirect role in several health problems," he said.

Bizarre enough, the year also saw a series of allegations over spurious India-made drugs, mainly cough syrups. The year began with the WHO issuing an alert against two Indian cough syrups linked to the deaths of 18 children in Uzbekistan.

As more such alerts were sounded against India-made drugs through the year, hurting the country's image as the 'pharmacy of the world', the government cracked down on firms making spurious drugs.

But as the year ends, the focus again will be on Covid-19 as the new subvariant, JN.1, is leading a spike in many countries, including India.

India is standing at the same juncture it was last year with Covid knocking at the doors again. Time will tell how Covid-19 manifests itself in 2024 — four years after it was detected in Wuhan, China — not only in India but around the world too.

FOREST MISSED & FOOD STOCK DENTED

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

THE year 2023 will be remembered for being both 'historic' and 'bitterly disappointing' for environment conservation and climate change. It is also known for how the changing climate has dented the country's food security.

The year started with translocation of a new batch of 12 cheetahs from South Africa to Kuno-Palpur national park in Madhya Pradesh. It was followed by hullabaloo over mismanagement of cheetah conservation, following deaths of nine cheetahs including three cubs. The country had witnessed the first-time birth of cheetah cubs after more than seven decades but only one survived. A few cheetah strayed out of the forest, raising the question of the forest's carrying capacity.

The year is also celebrated as 50 years of 'Project Tiger' and the historic rise in the number of tigers. The government has boasted over India being home to 75% of the world's tigers. but the highest number of tiger deaths in the country happened during the year.

The government amended the Forest Conservation Act 1980 and allowed non-forestry activities on forest land, which would damage the forest in the long run. It amended Coastal Aquaculture Authority, permitting coastal aquaculture activities within the environmentally fragile coastal regulation zones. It also amended the Biodiversity Act, which may take away rights of the local communities and help flourish the Ayush industry — Ayurvedic drug manufacturers to facilitate the export of Ayurveda, Siddha, Unani and Homoeopathy drugs.

In the midst of gloom, the decision to ban two non-steroids medicines is set to help the vulture population grow.

POLITICAL GIMMICK

Stating that the peace agreement with the pro-talks faction of ULFA has nothing new to offer, opposition parties in Assam slammed the BJP and said the pact is "a political gimmick" ahead of the Lok Sabha polls.

Not 60, Dalits to get pension at 50

CM Hemant Soren says move will benefit particularly vulnerable tribal groups in J'khand

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

JHARKHAND Chief Minister Hemant Soren on Friday announced pension benefits for tribals and Dalits when they reach 50 years of age. Soren made the announcement while addressing a function held in the state capital to mark the completion of four years of the JMM-led government in the state.

"The government has decided to provide pension benefits to tribals and Dalits when they turn 50. The death rate among them is high and they do not get jobs after 50 years of age. It will be especially beneficial to the endangered particularly vulnerable tribal groups in the state," he said.

The chief minister also distributed appointment letters to the candidates selected for different government jobs, besides inaugurating and laying the foundation stone for schemes worth about Rs 4,500 crore at Morhabdi Maidaan in Ranchi.

Soren said in each household of the state, at least one member of the family gets benefits of one or another pension scheme of the state government. "This is not enough as they are facing a lot of problems, he said.

The CM said efforts were being made to connect the primitive tribes with the mainstream, making available food grain to their doorstep, giving them direct appointments in jobs and also providing free coaching for them in different parts of the state.

"During the last four years, we have given pension benefits to 36 lakh people above 60 years of age, widows above 18 years of age, and also physically challenged persons," said the CM.

The state is implementing many schemes for the first time, including the outreach programme 'Aapki Yojna, Aapki Sarkar, Aaapke Dwar," he added.

Soren said when his government was formed four years ago, the financial condition of the state was bad. "Yet we gave ration cards to the people and connected 20 lakh farmers to the KCC, he said. The Chief Minister further announced that now, the Jharkhand government will distribute insured animals to the farmers.

"The previous BJP government gave weak animals to the farmers, which died soon," said Soren. In a state with no double-engine government, they are given step-motherly treatment," he added. Soren alleged lack of support from the Centre, saying the governor was instigated against his government.

"The Centre owes ₹1.36 lakh crore to Jharkhand on account of coal mined in the state. But when we ask for the money, the Centre refuses. It behaves in a step-motherly way with Jharkhand," Soren alleged.

Keeping up his attack on the Centre, Soren said it was requested to allocate an additional eight lakh houses for the poor in Jharkhand, but it did not.

Bhagwat, Hosabale to firm up Bengal strategy today

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

DAYS before the inauguration of Ram mandir in Ayodhya by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, two top-level functionaries of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) are scheduled to visit Bengal on Saturday.

RRS chief Mohan Bhagwat and its general secretary Dattatreya Hosabale will hold a series of meetings with the organisation's senior functionaries in Bengal, said a source.

There are murmurs that the visit is aimed to strengthen BJP's Hindutwa rhetoric and direct the organisation's functionaries to ensure its reflection in the Lok Sabha elections slated to be held next year.

"Mohan Bhagwat ji will reach Kolkata on Saturday and will leave onSunday night. He will meet prominent faces from different fields with an aim to rope them in for the Lok Sabha polls as BJP's candidates," said an RSS leader.

Sources said that Bhagwat will meet former CBI officer Upen Biswas, who raised questions on the irregularities in recruitments in state-aided schools, the alleged scam which landed former education minister Partha Chatterjee behind the bars.

After his retirement, Biswas joined the TMC and won from Bagda in North 24-Parganas in the 2011 Assembly elections. He was the minister for backward class welfare in Mamata Banerjee's government from 2011 to 2016.

Hosabale will hold several organisational meetings during his visit. "He will give us a roadmap of the RSS's role in Bengal on the day of the inauguration of Ram Mandir by Modi," said the leader.

Suspense over Yadav cabinet may end soon

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

WITH portfolios being awarded to new ministers a week after their swearing in ceremony in Chhattisgarh, Madhya Pradesh is also likely to see a similar development.

Chief Minister Dr Mohan Yadav met Home Minister Amit Shah on Friday. Yadav was likely to return to Bhopal by Friday night. According to key sources, the portfolios allotment to the two deputy CMs and the 28 other ministers is likely to happen shortly.

Sources added that the delay in allotment of portfolios to the new ministers is being attributed to efforts by the party to strike a harmonious balance between portfolios of all senior leaders, including the two deputy CMs, Rajendra Shukla and Jagdish Dewda and cabinet ministers Prahlad Patel and Kailash Vijayvargiya.

"Reasons behind delay in formation of new council of ministers and allotment of portfolios is to strike balance between the responsibilities/portfolios of all the senior leaders. The delay is also because the BJP's top brass doesn't seem to be in a mood to take any chances on any issue, months before the Lok Sabha polls," a senior state BJP leader maintained.

Importantly, even before the first cabinet expansion on December 25, the CM had flown to Delhi twice within a week and met with top party leaders.

Maha battle for LS polls: Shinde, 2 deputies to meet Shah over seat-sharing

SUDHIR SURAYWANSHI @ Mumbai

MAHARASHTRA Chief Minister Eknath Shinde, along with his two deputies - Devendra Fadnavis and Ajit Pawar – is likely to meet Union Minister Amit Shah in Delhi seeking clarity on seat-sharing in the Lok Sabha polls and tangible solutions for the Maratha reservation issue.

The chief minister had met DCMs Devendra Fadnavis and Ajit Pawar at Varsha bungalow on Thursday to deliberate on the issue. While BJP is firm on contesting 23 of the 48 seats, DCM Ajit Pawar-led NCP faction has set its eye on 11 seats, and CM Shinde-led Shiv Sena is demanding 3 seats, said a source.

"There is big mismatch among the alliance partners' seat demands. Though the BJP is playing the big brother in Mahayuti alliance, Ajit Pawar-led NCP is equally important to repeat the 2019 Lok Sabha tally of 42 seats in the multi-party politics. BJP has vote share of 32% and to bag 42 seats, including numbers of alliance partners, we need to grab 40% vote share. Therefore, this seat-sharing talk has to be held in Delhi only," said a senior NCP leader.

Asserting that there is no confusion among the alliance partners, MLA Sanjay Shirsat of the Shinde-led camp said top leaders of the three parties will resolve the issue amicably.

However, another Shiv Sena leader said that last time Shiv Sena contested 23 seats and won 19. "We are not demanding 23 seats but a decent number. We expect 19 seats so that on all sitting MPs seat, will repeat our candidates," the leader said.

Manoj Jarange Patil had announced his march to Mumbai on January 25 to press for the demand of Maratha reservations. "Jarange Patil has threatened that three crore Maratha protestors will march to Mumbai and will not leave until reservation status is granted. The huge gathering can lead to law and order issue," he added.

Gujarat on a high: 93K kg of drugs seized in 5 yrs, no. of addicts 19L

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

DRUG incidents have been rising in Gujarat over the recent years. Government data reveals that, in the past five years, authorities in Gujarat have confiscated 93,691 kg of drugs, 2,229 liters of liquid drugs, and 93,763 drug pills and injections.

The National Survey on Extent and Pattern of Substance Use in India indicates that in Gujarat, there are 17,35,000 male and 185,000 female drug addicts.

On December 13, 2023, in the Rajya Sabha, MPs Dheeraj Prasad Shahu and Dr. Amee Yagnik were informed by the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India, about the seizures in Gujarat from 2018 to 2022. These included 27,842.639 kg of opium-based drugs, 59,365.983 kg of cannabis-based drugs, 75.115 kg of cocaine, 3,789.143 kg of psychotropic substances, and various other drugs in different forms.

Notably, in 2022, of the 71.89 kg of cocaine seized across India, 39.1 kg was from Gujarat.

The number of drug addicts in Gujarat is also on the rise. According to the 2018 survey by the Ministry through NDDTC, AIIMS, there are 236,000 males addicted to cannabis-based drugs, 791,000 to opium-based drugs, and 659,000 to sedatives. Among females, 149,000 are addicted to cannabis-based drugs, 1,000 to opioids, and 33,000 to sedatives. Inhalants are used by 49,000 men and 3,000 women.

Hiren Banker, a spokesperson for the Gujarat Congress, criticized the state government for inadequate police force to combat drug crimes. He highlighted that Gujarat has only 117 police personnel per lakh population, less than the national average of 152 and much lower than the required 174.

The Ministry of Home Affairs acknowledged the challenges posed by Gujarat's vast maritime borders for drug trafficking control.

Hiren Banker, a Gujarat Congress spokesperson, attacked the state administration, saying, "The government does not have enough police force in the state to fight drug crime, so how can the government take strict action?"

103 drones shot down by BSF on Pak border this yr

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

AS many as 103 drones were shot down by the Border Security Force (BSF) in Punjab sector along the Indo-Pak international border this year.

More than 350 Unmanned Aerial Vehicles (UAVs) were also sighted entering the Indian Territory.

According to the sources, due to fog the BSF has changed its Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) and is relying more on human intelligence. Help of thermal imaging cameras is being taken to check cross-border infiltration.

The BSF troopers are keeping a watch from elevated platforms so that no intruder crosses the international border into the Indian territory. Besides, small operation teams have been formed which go ahead of the fence behind the international border and patrol the area. Nakas (check posts) are being set up deep inside the villages so that if anyone infiltrates, he would be caught with help of villagers. All the people moving in the area are checked and those unidentified are apprehended.

Also, troop deployment has been increased and vulnerability mapping is being conducted. Thermal imaging cameras along with other high-end surveillance equipment has been installed to check intrusions, said the sources, adding that a database has been prepared which includes vulnerability mapping to identify places where more such illegal activities are taking place. A database has also been prepared to identify people involved in crimes," said an official on condition of anonymity.

He said that earlier big drones were being used with payload capacity of three to five kg. "But now in the past three months, we have noticed a change as small drones are being used to carry 400 to 500 grams of heroin from across the border."

Atul Fulzele, Inspector General (Punjab Frontier) of BSF told this newspaper, "We have intensified border domination and the standard operating procedures have been changed due to the foggy conditions to check intrusions as now more focus is on human intelligence."

A total of 755 kg of narcotics, 15 assorted rifles and 38 pistols were seized by the BSF during various operations this year besides apprehending 36 Pakistani nationals and neutralizing nine intruders from across the border along the international border.

BSF troopers keeping an eye on intruders

The BSF troopers are keeping a watch from elevated platforms so that no intruder crosses the international border into the Indian territory. Besides, small operation teams have been formed which go ahead of the fence behind the international border and patrol the area. Nakas (check posts) are being set up inside the villages so that if anyone infiltrates, he would be caught. All the people moving in the area are checked and those unidentified are apprehended. Also, troop deployment has been increased and vulnerability mapping is being conducted.

U'khand govt orders inspection of teachers' credentials at pvt schools

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

AMID claims of improvement in the quality of school education in Uttarakhand, the government has ordered an inspection of the credentials of teachers working in all private schools in the state. This initiative emphasizes quality once again. The purpose behind this move is to ascertain whether the teachers meet the standards set by the National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE).

According to information from the Education Department, an order issued on December 27 directs block education officers to collect details of the educational qualifications of all teachers in private schools within seven days. The letter notes that many private schools have been ignoring educational standards.

The School Education Department in Uttarakhand has initiated a comprehensive review of the educational qualification certificates of teachers in private schools. This is to ensure adherence to the standards established by the NCTE," said Uttarakhand Director General of Education, Banshidhar Tiwari.

The Chief Education Officer, Pradeep Kumar, has issued an order to the Block Education Officers requesting comprehensive information. "In the recent directive to the Block Education Officers, we have requested the educational qualifications of teachers from all private schools to be submitted in an Excel sheet using the prescribed format within one week," Chief Education Officer Pradeep Kumar said.

In April this year, the Education Department conducted simultaneous raids at 256 private schools across the state following complaints of substituting NCERT textbooks with more expensive ones. The investigation revealed that 21 schools in Nainital and one in Haridwar were violating government orders regarding the implementation of NCERT books.

Uttarakhand has a total of 5,331 private schools. However, according to the latest report data, Uttarakhand ranks 35th among 37 states and union territories in India in terms of education performance. Meanwhile, the total number of private schools in India is 3,35,844.

Ensure adherence to NCTE standards

School Education Department initiated a comprehensive review of the educational qualification certificates of teachers in private schools. This is to ensure adherence to the standards established by the NCTE, said Uttarakhand Director General of Education, Banshidhar Tiwari.

US Air Force said its N-missile capsules were safe. But toxins lurked

WASHINGTON

A large pool of dark liquid festering on the floor. No fresh air. Asbestos readings 50 times higher than the Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) safety standards.

These are just some of the past toxic risks that were in the underground capsules and silos where Air Force nuclear missile crews have worked since the 1960s. Now many of those members have cancer.

The toxic dangers were recorded in documents dating back to the 1980s that were obtained by AP. They tell a far different story from what Air Force leadership said, "The workplace is free of health hazards," a December 30, 2001, Air Force probe found. "Sometimes, illnesses tend to occur by chance alone," a follow-up 2005 Air Force review found.

Underground launch capsules in US | AP

The capsules are again under scrutiny.

The AP reported in January that at least nine current or former nuclear missile officers, or missileers, had been diagnosed with the blood cancer non-Hodgkin's lymphoma. Then hundreds more came forward self-reporting cancer diagnoses. In response, the Air Force tested thousands of air, water, soil and surface samples. Four current samples have come back with unsafe levels of polychlorinated biphenyls.

There are plenty of warning signs about past toxic risks obtained by AP. "Type and content of asbestos, please phone ASAP," a handwritten note reads on memo dated November 9, 1992.

"It's frustrating to know they had thought of this back then," said Doreen Jenness, whose husband, Jason Jenness, was a missileer at Malmstrom nuclear missile base, who died of non-Hodgkin's lymphoma in 2001 at the age of 31.

Sierra was one of the capsules that Jason's squadron operated. The environmental reports show Sierra had a long list of hazards. In March of 1996, the medical team measured carbon dioxide levels of 1,700 parts per million in air.

As part of modernisation, the old capsules will be demolished. A new, modern underground control centre will be built on top of them. Air Force teams working on the new designs are aware of the cancer reports and are applying health standards in new centres, said Maj. Gen. John Newberry, commander of Air Force's nuclear weapons centre. AP

Now, Maine bars Trump from prez ballot

PORTLAND

MAINE'S Democratic secretary of state on Thursday removed former President Donald Trump from the state's presidential primary ballot under the Constitution's insurrection clause, becoming the first election official to take action unilaterally as the US Supreme Court is poised to decide whether Trump remains eligible to return to the White House.

The decision by Secretary of State Shenna Bellows follows a ruling earlier this month by the Colorado Supreme Court that booted Trump from the ballot.

The Trump campaign said it would appeal Bellows' decision to Maine's state courts. Bellows found that Trump could no longer run for his prior job because his role in the January 6, 2021, attack on the US Capitol violated Section 3, which bans from office those who "engaged in insurrection." Bellows made the ruling after some state residents, including a bipartisan group of former lawmakers, challenged Trump's position on the ballot.

"I do not reach this conclusion lightly," Bellows wrote in her decision. "I am mindful that no Secretary of State has ever deprived a presidential candidate of ballot access based on Section 3 of the 14th Amendment. I am also mindful, however, that no presidential candidate has ever before engaged in insurrection." The Trump campaign immediately slammed the ruling. "We are witnessing, in real-time, the attempted theft of an election and the disenfranchisement of the American voter," campaign spokesman Steven Cheung said in a statement. AP

IMAPACT OF MAINE'S DECISION ON TRUMP

Trump lost Colorado in 2020, and he doesn't need to win it again. But he won one of Maine's four Electoral College votes in 2020 by winning the state's 2nd Congressional District, so decision by Secretary of State Shenna Bellows would have a direct impact on his odds next November.

Party leaders can hold poll meets with Imran in jail

ISLAMABAD

THE Islamabad High Court (IHC) on Friday granted leaders and lawyers of Pakistan's ex-PM Imran Khan's party to visit him at Adiala Jail and hold election strategy meetings ahead of February 8 polls.

The order was passed by Justice Miangul Hasan Aurangzeb on a petition filed by Imran seeking permission to hold meetings with Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) party members Asad Qaiser, Junaid Akbar Khan, senators Aurangzeb Khan and Dost Mohammad Khan and Ishtiaq Meherban and others to strategise ahead of the elections.

The plea filed by Imran also requested the court to instruct the superintendent of Adiala Jail to ensure privacy for Imran during his consultations with his legal team.

During Friday's hearing, Attorney-General for Pakistan (AGP) Mansoor Usman Awan, lawyers of PTI party and Adiala Jail superintendent appeared in the IHC.

PTI counsel Shoaib Shaheen said the party needed to hold discussions for the allotment of 700 tickets while AGP raised objections to the maintainability of the plea.

"Permission for consultations on polls is a fundamental right," Justice Aurangzeb said, stressing that the caretaker government should be 'neutral' during elections. "Opposing meetings between PTI chairman and Imran raises questions on the neutrality of the interim set-up," judge said and disposed of the petition. PTI

Biggest aerial salvo as Russia fires 122 missiles

Hits six cities; including Kharkiv in northeast, Lviv in west, Dnipro in east and Odesa in south

KYIV

RUSSIA launched 122 missiles and 36 drones against Ukrainian targets, officials said on Friday, and killing at least 30 civilians across the country in what an air force official called the biggest aerial barrage of the conflict.

At least 144 people were injured and an unknown number were buried under rubble during the roughly 18-hour onslaught, Ukrainian officials said. A maternity hospital, apartment blocks and schools were among the buildings reported damaged across Ukraine.

Ukraine's military estimated that Russia had fired 158 missiles and drones on Ukraine and 114 of them had been destroyed.

The result was "the most massive aerial attack" since Russia's invasion in February 2022, Air Force commander Mykola Oleshchuk said. It topped the previous biggest assault, in November 2022 when Russia launched 96 missiles, and this year's biggest, with 81 missiles on March 9, according to air force records.

The attack hit six cities, and reports of deaths came in from across the country.

In Dnipro, four maternity hospital patients were rescued from a fire, five persons were killed and 20 injured.

In Odesa, falling drone wreckage started a fire at a multistory residential building, as per regional head, Oleh Kiper. Two persons were killed and 15, including two children, were injured, he said.

Today, Russia used nearly every type of weapon in its arsenal: Kinzhals, S-300s, cruise missiles. Strategic bombers launched X-101/X-505 missiles. Around 110 missiles were fired...with majority of them being shot down

Volodymyr Zelenskyy, Ukraine President

The mayor of Lviv, Andrii Sadovyi, said one person was killed there, with three schools and a kindergarten damaged in a drone attack. Local emergency services said 30 people were injured.

Kharkiv faced around 20 strikes, killing three employees at a civilian enterprise and wounding around 11.

Several dozen missiles were launched towards Kyiv, with more than 30 intercepted, said Serhii Popko, head of the Kyiv military administration. Three persons were killed.

Six were killed and 28 wounded said Sergiy Lysak, the governor of Dnipropetrovsk region where a shopping mall, private houses and administrative buildings were hit. Agencies

Shots fired at home of temple head in Canada, probe launched

OTTAWA

CANADIAN police have launched an investigation into reports of shots fired at the residence of an Indian-origin businessman in Surrey in the British Columbia province, causing damage to the property.

According to several media reports, gunshots were fired at the residence of the son of Satish Kumar, the president of Lakshmi Narayan Mandir, in Surrey on Wednesday.

The temple was in the news when its members last month countered a protest of the secessionist group Sikhs for Justice against the killing of Khalistani separatist Hardeep Singh Nijjar on June 18 in Surrey.

A press release issued by police on Thursday said that Surrey Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) is "investigating a report of shots fired at a residence in the early morning of December 27."

On Wednesday at approximately 8.03 am, Surrey RCMP responded to a report of shots fired at a residence in the 14900 block of 80 Avenue, Constable Parmbir Kahlon, Media Relations Officer for Surrey Police, said in a statement.

"No one was injured during the incident, but the residence involved sustained damage consistent with bullet holes," the release said without divulging the identity of the resident.

Police remained in the area, examining the scene, speaking with witnesses and canvassing the neighbourhood for CCTV footage. Officers are working to determine the motive of this incident, the release said. PTI

Iran executes four for links with Mossad

Tehran: Iran executed on Friday four persons for having alleged links with Israel's Mossad security service. Mizan said three men and one woman were executed Friday morning. It identified the men as Vafa Hanareh, Aram Omari, Rahman Parhazo and the woman as Nasim Namazi. The four were charged with kidnapping several Iranian security forces to extract information. They were also accused of setting fire to cars of some of Iran's intelligence agents.

World population up 75 million this year

The world population grew by 75 million people over the past year and on New Year's Day, it will stand at more than 8 billion people, according to figures released by the US Census Bureau on Thursday

GROWTH RATE

The projected world population on January 1, 2024 is 8,019,876,189, up 75,162,541 (0.95%) from New Year's Day 2023

The world population is projected to reach 8.5 billion in 2030, and to increase further to 9.7 billion in 2050 and 10.4 billion by 2100, as per UN

The growth rate for the United States in the past year was 0.53%, about half the worldwide figure. The US added 1.7 million people and will have a population on New Year's Day of 335.8 million people

2020: SLOWEST GROWING DECADE

- If the current pace continues through the end of the decade, the 2020s could be the slowest-growing decade in US history, yielding a growth rate of less than 4% over the 10-year-period from 2020 to 2030, said William Frey, a demographer at The Brookings Institution
- The slowest-growing decade currently was in the aftermath of the Great Depression in the 1930s, when the growth rate was 7.3%
- "Of course growth may tick up a bit as we leave the pandemic years. But it would still be difficult to get to 7.3%," Frey said

BIRTHS & DEATHS

During January 2024, 4.3 births and 2.0 deaths are expected worldwide every second

At the start of 2024, the United States is expected to experience one birth every nine seconds and one death every 9.5 seconds

HAT YAI CITY TO RAISE 760 MN BAHT REVENUE

The Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT) projects that tourism in the city of Hat Yai will generate 760 million baht revenue during New Year holiday period. Arrivals of both foreign and domestic tourists from Dec 30 to Jan 1 will be more lively than 2022, said Nongyao Jirundon, director of the Hat Yai office of TAT, Bangkok Post reported. Jirundon attributed rise in tourists to measures such as suspension of the requirement to fill TM 6 immigration forms at the Sadao immigration checkpoint in Songkhla as well as many tourism campaign activities throughout December

ISRAEL BOMBS SOUTH GAZA AS HAMAS OFFICIALS DUE IN CAIRO FOR TRUCE TALKS

GAZA STRIP

ISRAEL pounded south and central Gaza on Friday as Egypt was to host a high-level Hamas delegation for talks to try and end the nearly 12-week war.

The Israeli military said its forces "are extending operation in Khan Yunis" in the coastal territory's south, and had "eliminated dozens of terrorists" across Gaza over the past 24 hours. AFPTV footage showed smoke billowing over Rafah, near Egypt.

Sources close to Hamas say Egypt's three-stage plan provides for renewable ceasefires, a staggered release of hostages in exchange for Palestinian prisoners in Israel, and ultimately an end to the war.

Also, tens of thousands of Palestinians streamed into an already crowded town at the southernmost end of Gaza in recent days, according to the United Nations, fleeing Israel's bombardment of the centre of the strip, where hospital officials said dozens were killed on Friday. "People are using any empty space to build shacks," said Juliette Touma, director of communications at UNRWA, the UN agency for Palestinian refugees. "Some are sleeping in their cars, and others are sleeping in the open."

Meanwhile, South Africa launched a case on Friday at the United Nations' top court accusing Israel of genocide.

South Africa's submission to the International Court of Justice alleges that "acts and omissions by Israel ... are genocidal in character" as they are committed with the intent "to destroy Palestinians in Gaza as a part of the broader Palestinian national, racial and ethnical group." Agencies

Some analysts believe equities will give double-digit returns over the next two-three years

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

IT has been a remarkable year for the domestic equity market as it defied multiple global headwinds and gave a double-digit return to investors.

Despite two global conflicts and inflationary pressure throughout the year, benchmarks - BSE Sensex and NSE Nifty50 - signed off calendar year 2023 by gaining 19% and 20%, respectively. The 30-share index, Sensex, started 2023 at 60,840 to close the last trading session of the year at 72,240 while the 50-share pack Nifty started at 18,105 and closed at 21,731. The two indexes at present are hovering at around their all-time high levels.

Two ongoing conflicts, Russia-Ukraine and Israel-Hamas, and their impact on energy prices left no stone unturned for the bears this year to grip the market. Add to it, subsequent interest rate hikes in the first half by the US Federal Reserve and the RBI, a slowing global economy, US bond yields hitting a decadal high and the dollar index maintaining a firm stance kept investors nervous for most part of the year.

Market boosting factors

- Despite two global conflicts, inflationary pressure benchmarks signed off calendar year 2023 gaining about 20%
- Resilient economy, strong corporate earnings, softening inflation in later part of 2023 kept buying interest high
- Buying momentum received a big boost after victory of BJP in three state elections

The meltdown in Adani Group Stocks following the Hindenburg Research report in January also impacted sentiments. However, a resilient economy, strong corporate earnings growth and softening inflation in the later part of the year kept the buying interest high. Buying momentum received a big boost after the victory of PM Narendra Modi-led Bharatiya Janata Party in three state elections. The market received another booster after the US Federal Reserve signalled three rate cuts in 2024.

"2023 was intriguing for both the Indian and global equity markets. While the year commenced with restrained expectations and volatility in the initial months, the market saw a remarkable recovery in the second half from its March 2023 bottom," said Pranav Haridasan, MD & CEO, Axis Securities. Haridasan believes Indian economy will continue to stand out in 2024 and equities are likely to give double-digit returns over the next two to three years, supported by robust double-digit earnings growth.

However, few analysts believe the pace of return may slow down in 2024. "2024 is beginning on a high base, hence it may be difficult to expect a similar performance by the time 2024 ends," said Dhiraj Relli, MD & CEO at HDFC Securities.

The broader indices outperformed benchmarks in 2023 as Nifty Midcap 100 and Nifty Smallcap 100 indices surged 46% and 55%, respectively. Sector-wise, the Nifty Realty index gained more than 80% in 2023. Nifty Auto and Nifty PSU Bank also rewarded investors in 2023.

Among large stocks, Tata Group shares were again in maximum demand. Tata Motors became the first Nifty stock to double in 1 year as it gained 101% in 2023 while Tata Consumer became the seventh Tata Group Company to have a market share of ₹1 lakh crore.

Breach of contract: Wipro seeks ₹25 crore from ex-CFO

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

IT major Wipro has demanded ₹25.15 crore in damages along with 18% interest from its former CFO Jatin Dalal for violating a clause in his employment contract.

Dalal has joined the company's rival Cognizant. The suit was filed by the IT company at the end of November and a civil court in Bengaluru has posted for orders on January 3.

The non-compete clause prevents Dalal from joining a rival company within one year of leaving the company and failing which he would be liable to compensate the company with value of the Restricted Stock Units (RSU) allotted to him or the sum of his total remuneration in the previous 12 months.

Earlier, this newspaper reported that Dalal has filed an application requesting the court to move the matter to arbitration.

Dalal joined Wipro in 2002 and became CFO of the company in April 2015 and also assumed additional responsibilities as President beginning in December 2019. Dalal also led Wipro Ventures, Wipro's $300 million strategic investment arm focused on investing in early- to mid-stage startups.

Clause prevents Dalal joining rival in 1 year

Suit was filed by Wipro at the end of November and a civil court in Bengaluru has posted for orders on January 3. The non-compete clause prevents Dalal from joining a rival within one year of leaving the company and failing which he would be liable to compensate the company with value of the Restricted Stock Units (RSU) allotted to him

On September 21, Wipro announced that CFO Dalal has resigned and that Aparna C Iyer has been elevated as its new CFO. A week later, Cognizant announced the appointment of Dalal as CFO, effective in December. Dalal is reporting to Ravi Kumar S, Cognizant's CEO. The company also said that Dalal will oversee, among other responsibilities, Cognizant's worldwide financial planning and analysis, accounting and controllership, tax, treasury and internal audit, corporate development, investor relations and enterprise risk management functions.

Wipro has seen many top-level exits in recent times. The company has also filed a complaint against Mohd Haque, a former senior vice president and head of healthcare and medical devices- Americas, alleging a violation of the non-compete clause in his employment contract.

He moved from the company before the expiration of the non-compete clause that was set until August 1, 2023. He also joined Cognizant recently.

FOCUS AREAS

Country should avoid retro tax, says Uday Kotak

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

KOTAK MAHINDRA group founder Uday Kotak on Friday said India is transforming from a country of savers to investors and laid out a detailed financial sector model for the country to achieve 9% annual growth and become a $30 trillion economy by 2047.

The veteran banker also said that India should avoid a retrospective tax and regulatory regime. He added that two areas which need urgent focus for the country's aspiration are acquisition financing and streamlining of the IBC/ NCLT process.

Explaining the transformation from savers to investors, Kotak said that in the early 80s, the Indian saver had low confidence in financial assets versus gold and land. He added that slowly the saver moved some part to bank deposits, UTI and LIC and even in the 90s, investing in equities was considered "speculative".

"The Indian saver's interest in markets improved after the global financial crisis. That saver is now savouring the joys of investing. Mutual fund platforms, cash equities and derivatives markets, insurance funds, global private equity in India, other platforms like AIFs, lower tax regime for equity, have all converted a saver to an investor," said Kotak on 'X'.

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Chennai

THE Centre has increased the interest rate on Sukanya Samriddhi Account from 8% to 8.2% for the January-March 2024 quarter.

The government notified the rate on small savings schemes, majorly operated by post offices, every quarter. Last September, the central government raised interest rate on a five-year recurring deposit scheme to 6.7% from 6.5% for the December quarter and retained the rates for all other small savings schemes.

Only one account is allowed for a girl child.

India trade deficit with Aus down 40%

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

Country's trade pact with Australia has boosted exports in several sectors of the Indian economy, including engineering goods, electronic products, and pharmaceuticals, as per the commerce ministry.

The data showed country's overall merchandise exports to Australia grew by 14% in April to November 2023, while imports from the country declined by 19% during the same period. The trade deficit with Australia during the period has also fallen by 39% to $5.3 billion.

According to the data, exports from India to Australia under preferential lines rose by 17.8 percent year-on-year, reaching $1.58 billion during the period of April to October 2023. However, exports of gems and jewellery reported a negative growth of 19%, while chemicals export also plummeted by 26% in April-October of 2023.

Preferential lines refer to preferential access given via duty cuts as part of trade agreements between nations. Among sector-wise Indian exports to Australia on preferential lines, the highest percentage increase was recorded in drugs and pharmaceutical products, which saw a significant rise of 52 percent in the first seven months of the current fiscal year, followed by a 37 percent surge in the export of cereals preparation during the same period.

Imports from Australia on preferential lines also recorded growth, particularly in pulses, fruits, and vegetables during April-October 2023.

Rajesh Agrawal, Additional Secretary of the Commerce Ministry, noted that the India-Australia Economic Cooperation and Trade Agreement (ECTA), which came into effect on December 29, 2022, has completed its first year and both the countries are trying to expand the existing pact into a more comprehensive "Comprehensive Economic Cooperation Agreement (CECA)".

ECONOMIC GROWTH SLOWED TO 5.05%

The economic growth of Vietnam slowed to 5.05% this year from an expansion of 8.02% last year, official data showed on Friday. Growth was weighed down by weak global demand as public investment stalled amid an intensified anti-graft crackdown. According to data released by the General Statistics Office (GSO), the gross domestic product (GDP) growth this year was below the government's target of 6.5% and lower than average growth of 5.87% during the previous decade. The growth in 2023 is slower than a government target of 6.5% and last year's economic expansion of 8.02%. Exports of the country this year declined 4.4% from the last year, the government data showed. Vietnam's industrial production index in 2023 increased 1.5% while average consumer prices jumped 3.25%, the GSO said.

SRI LANKA

INFLATION ACCELERATED TO 4% IN DECEMBER

Key inflation rate of Sri Lanka accelerated to 4% in December from 3.4% in November, the statistics department of the country said on Friday. The Colombo Consumer Price Index LKCCPI=ECI, an indicator for broader national prices, tracks inflation in Colombo, Sri Lanka's biggest city. The Central Bank of Sri Lanka's Governor P Nandalal Weerasinghe inflation is expected to stand at 6% at the end of January. A one-off jump in inflation of 2%-3% is also expected from a recent jump in VAT, Weerasinghe said. The country is facing is facing various macroeconomic hurdles in the recent years. After a severe foreign reserves and fuel crisis, the government of the country is taking various measures to bring the country out of the crisis. The country has taken loans from the International Monetary Fund (IMF). Last week, the international fund had cleared the second tranche of about $337 million of the Extended Fund Facility (EFF) to the country, based on the debt treatment plan drawn up by the crisis-battered island nation and its bilateral creditors.

SOUTH KOREA

INFLATION EASES FOR SECOND MONTH IN DECEMBER

Annual consumer inflation in South Korea eased for a second month in December and came in below market expectations. This is in line with the policymakers' outlook that price pressure will gradually ease through 2024. The December consumer price index (CPI) grew 3.2% in the month from a year earlier, compared with a rise of 3.3% in November. Inflation data supports the Bank of Korea's view that price pressure will gradually ease to its target level of 2% towards the end of next year as policymakers gear up to a pivot to monetary policy easing. Consumer inflation eased to 3.6% in 2023 from 5.1% in 2022. Most economists see the BOK as having reached its peak rate and expect it to start easing policy from the third quarter of next year as cooling inflation makes a restrictive policy rate at 3.50% difficult to justify to the public. A breakdown of the data showed prices of fresh food items surged 14.5% year-on-year in December but prices of industrial goods rose 2.1% year-on-year, slowing from 2.5% in November.

OMCs to provide ₹6.87/ltr incentive for ethanol from C-heavy molasses

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

TO promote ethanol production from C-heavy molasses, a byproduct of sugar, oil marketing companies (OMCs) on Friday announced an incentive of ₹6.87/litre for ethanol makers.

Oil companies such as Indian Oil Corporation Limited (IOCL), Bharat Petroleum Corporation Limited (BPCL) and Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Limited (HPCL) will now buy ethanol produced from C-heavy molasses at ₹56.28 per litre as against ₹49.41 per litre in the 2022-23. OMCs are procuring ethanol to mix it with petrol as the government mandated the use of 20% ethanol blending in petrol in next two years. The purpose of the government is to discourage ethanol producers to use sugar juice, the high sugar feedstock and use C-heavy molasses — a very low sugar content.

"Ensuring farmers' prosperity, saving precious foreign exchange and driving sustainability! ₹6.87 per litre incentive for ethanol from C molasses by Public Sector OMCs bolsters green economy and also strengthens foundation for a cleaner and eco-friendly future with Ethanol blended petrol programme under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi," said petroleum minister Hardeep Singh Puri.

In the first week of December 2023, the government restricts using of sugarcane juice and sugar syrup to produce ethanol in the country. It is believed that the decision to curb use of sugarcane for ethanol production comes as domestic prices of sugar have remained elevated, up about 5% in December this year compared with last year.

India, which imports 85% petroleum products, aims to cut down its imports by blending ethanol in petrol. Its initial target of 10% blending was achieved in mid 2022, much ahead of the timeline of November 2022. India aims to achieve 20% blending by 2025, ahead of its previous target of 2030.

As per the reports, in 2022-23 (Dec-Oct), about 4.94 billion litres of ethanol supplied to the OMCs. Out of it a quarter estimated to be about 1.26 billion litres came from sugarcane juice or syrup as feedstocks, while 2.33 billion litres (about 47%) came from B-heavy molasses, while the rest around 1.30 billion litres came from grain-based sources.

C-heavy molasses contributed 0.06 billion litres of the total quantity of ethanol supplied to the OMCs in 2022-23. Sugarcane and its by-products like B molasses are the major source of ethanol production in India. Other sources for producing ethanol are corn, rice, and barley.

'Crypto investors should opt for compliant exchanges in the country'

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

A day after Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) issued show cause notices to offshore crypto and virtual digital assets platforms including Binance for not complying with the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) provisions, crypto exchanges said investors should always aim to have their assets on FIU-compliant entities.

In March 2023, crypto entities were included as reporting entities under PMLA, and exchanges lauded it saying it was the first step towards bringing formal regulations to the industry. "Several offshore entities catering to a major part of Indian users were not getting registered and coming under AML and CFT framework," the ministry said in a statement.

The FIU has written to the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology to block URLs of nine entities that are operating illegally. Till date, 31 VDA SPs (virtual digital assets service providers) have registered with the FIU.

"It is always a best practice when using funds on foreign exchanges, one should aim to move funds back to India. This regulatory push by FIU provides investors an opportunity to transfer their assets from foreign exchanges to FIU-compliant entities in India. As India continues to position itself as a welcoming hub for crypto innovation, these moves collectively pave the way for a vibrant and sustainable future for the digital asset ecosystem," said Edul Patel, CEO of Mudrex.

Sumit Gupta, co-founder, CoinDCX, said the recent step from FIU to offshore VDA SPs will aid users and investors in risk mitigation, protecting them from potential scams and fostering development of a secure VDA ecosystem.

Dilip Chenoy, Chairman, Bharat Web3 Association, urged users to opt for compliant exchanges to ensure their safeguarding.

The ministry added that both offshore and onshore VDA SPs that are engaged in activities like exchange between VDAs and fiat currencies, transfer of VDAs, among others, are required to be registered with FIU IND as Reporting Entity and comply with the set of obligations.

Nadal plays down Australia expectations

Rafael Nadal said Friday he was "feeling good" but played down any chance of winning tournaments in the near future as he returns from a near year-long injury absence. "I am feeling good," the Spaniard said at a promotional event in Brisbane. "I can't complain. I feel much better today than what I expected one month ago, but for me, it's impossible to think about winning tournaments today."

Touchline talks more than action

The men's team did put up some eye-catching performances this year but Indian football was dominantly embroiled in off-the-field issues between different stakeholders. Vishnu Prasad reflects on India's run in 2023...

Finish Line 2023

WHEN 2023 began, there was hope that this would be a year of change for Indian football. A new regime had taken charge at the All India Football Federation after years of rule by the same faces. A new roadmap, mapping out plans for the next 25 years, had just been released. Asian Cup qualification had been secured almost 18 months in advance, leaving all stakeholders with enough time to map out a plan to prepare for the tournament. There was talk of a renewed focus on women's football. And the Indian Super League — the country's top flight — was going to enter into its tenth year, a notable landmark.

Yet, at the end of the year, here we are, back to where we always end up. The new regime got mired in as many controversies as the old one, made a lot of hollow noise, and even lost their general secretary barely one year after taking charge. The AIFF failed to make concrete plans for events that were just a few months away which makes one question how they are going to stick to a plan that spans 25 years. Case in point is how India's squad for the Asian Games was yet to be finalised with just a couple of days left for their opener — a match that a tired squad played jetlagged after being forced to sleep in airports. The Indian Super League lost their broadcast partners Star and currently airs on Viacom18, owned by the same company that owns the league. And as the year ends, we have familiar noises being made by India coach Igor Stimac on how he had little time to prepare for the Asian Cup (just a two-week camp!). How many times have we heard an India coach complain about the exact same thing?

Things were not all bad though! The Blue Tigers enjoyed a remarkable run of form on the pitch, playing better football than had been seen in years. It took until September and their 13th match of the calendar year for them to taste defeat. The run even propelled them back into the top 100 of the FIFA rankings for a few months and earned Stimac a two-year contract extension.

The highlight of that run was probably the SAFF Cup victory in July. India are always expected to win the SAFF Championships but the 2023 edition at the Sree Kanteerava Stadium was different. The presence of Pakistan, playing again in India after a while, meant that the tournament kicked off to a packed stadium. India's comprehensive victory over their neighbours meant that the crowd stayed for the rest of the tournament too. The presence of Kuwait and Lebanon — who came to these shores ranked above India and left ranked one place below — meant that things were not going to be straightforward. But egged on by a vocal Bengaluru crowd, India not only got the results but did so while physically dominating their opponents, a rare sight over the years in Indian football. Both the semifinal against Lebanon and the final against Kuwait went to extra time and then penalties. But in both matches, it was the away team who ran out of fuel and were seen wasting time to take the match to penalties. That tactic backfired as the Indians held their nerves to come up trumps in both matches.

But just when it looked like Indian football would head to a major tournament on a high, the Asian Games happened. First, there was the announcement that India would not be participating. Then a social media campaign, kicked off by the PR-savvy Stimac of course, ended in India being given provisional approval to participate. But then, it emerged that he would not get the team he wanted as the Indian Super League refused to postpone fixtures and its clubs said no to releasing senior players. What followed was a game of 'who would blink first' between the league, the AIFF and the clubs, that lasted until there were only a couple of hours left for India's first game against China. In the end, the one big loser was Indian football.

That was far from the only time that Stimac failed to get what he wanted. In July, right after India had triumphed in the SAFF Cup, Stimac stressed the importance of preparation when it came to the Asian Cup. "The most important time for the National team of India to prepare well for the Asian Cup is December," he said. "We are looking to get a minimum of four-weeks preparation. The rest doesn't matter."

Yet when December came, the Indian Super League was continuing in full flow and the players were all with their respective clubs. Four weeks of preparation ended up being a fantasy for the Croatian. The league will only go on a break with just a few hours left for the new year and Stimac will only get less than half what he asked for. Given that India face Australia, Uzbekistan and Syria — three tough opponents — in the tournament which starts from January 12, conventional wisdom would have involved giving the coach whatever he wanted. But then, the AIFF always prefers to think differently.

And as Indian football stands on the cusp of another new year, there is, as always, talk of change. There is plenty of talk about players of Indian origin being shipped in to wear the blue shirt and propel India to short-term success. There is talk of approaching Saudi Arabia to host some matches of the 2034 FIFA World Cup. Arsene Wenger was in the country a month ago to inaugurate the FIFA-AIFF Academy. If only there was, in the words of the great Elvis Presley, a little less conversation, a little more action.

India pacers failed to make the most of the conditions in the opening Test | AFP

Chinks in India's bowling attack

GOMESH S @Chennai

AS Friday dawned in Centurion, with the dust on India's batting collapse which led to an innings loss to South Africa still settling down, landed a press release from the BCCI. It read, "The Men's Selection Committee has named Mr Avesh Khan as a replacement for Mr Mohd. Shami for the second Test against South Africa to be played from 3rd-7th January 2024 in Cape Town."

From the outset, it seemed like a good decision. That the pacer is coming fresh from a five-wicket haul against South Africa A in a four-day match apart, the inclusion of Avesh underlines the bigger concern beneath the inexperience and the fragility of India's batting display on Thursday. The problem they do not have an immediate answer to — India's pace attack is not what it was from two years ago, and what more, they do not have the bench strength for anyone to come in and do the job. And it reflected in Centurion as well.

India's premier bowlers for the match — Jasprit Bumrah, Mohammed Siraj and R Ashwin — had a decent return but the attack lacked in the fourth and fifth options. For a while now Shardul Thakur has been the anointed fourth pacer who provides a little bit of depth at No. 8 whenever India tours abroad, but things has not been the same. Since the Johannesburg Test in 2022, he has accounted for 99 runs and seven wickets in five matches. And that does not help when you are the third-most experienced pacer and not a back-up option. In Centurion, with Shami not available, Thakur bowled 19 overs, took one wicket while operating at 5.31 runs per over. Debutant Prasidh Krishna sent down 20 overs, while conceding 4.65 runs per over. In contrast, the other three cumulatively took seven wickets while giving away 201 runs in 69.4 overs — summing up what their captain Rohit Sharma said after the match. "This was not a 400-run wicket and we gave too many runs," he said. "We sprayed the ball all around, but it happens. One can't depend on one particular bowler (Bumrah), the other three pacers also needed to perform their roles, we could learn from how South Africa bowled," he added.

Indeed they could, and that is something they would probably be talking about when they take the field at SuperSport Park in Centurion for an optional training session on Saturday morning. What they also would want to talk about is the on-field tactics. While it was not a 400-run pitch as Rohit said, when the bowling attack is such that there are only three experienced options, it is important to use them well so that there is not much breather for the batters. Through South Africa's innings, Bumrah and Siraj bowled a lot in tandem, and understandably so, but one could go on and say a bit more than they should have. Off the 50.4 overs they cumulatively bowled, 43 were sent down in tandem.

On the other hand, Ashwin, who is supposed to provide control from one end, and he did, operating at 2.15 RPO, largely bowled alongside India's fourth and fifth bowlers — Thakur and Prasidh. In fact, the only over Ashwin bowled in tandem with Bumrah was his last one in the match. It meant that even if Ashwin was doing a good job at controlling one end, the batters were happy to milk runs off the inconsistent line and length from Thakur and Prasidh. While the latter, understandably needs to be given some time, the question remains as to how better Rohit, as a captain, could have rotated the bowlers he had in his arsenal. For someone captaining only his third away Test since he was named as captain in early 2022, the 36-year-old has a job cut out for him. His success as skipper in white-ball is a separate chapter, but for now, Rohit will be judged by what he does as a Test captain on the field. And whether it is not clear if Avesh's inclusion will bring better returns in Cape Town, one thing is they need their captain to make the most of what they have and maintain the intensity on the field when India are on the field.

No festive cheer for Arsenal and Spurs in PL

AGENCIES @ London

West Ham's Kostantinos Mavropanos celebrates his goal | AFP

THERE was no festive cheer for north London rivals Arsenal and Tottenham on Thursday.

A 2-0 home loss to West Ham stopped Arsenal moving back to the top of the Premier League. A 4-2 defeat at Brighton prevented Tottenham moving back into the top four.

Arsenal's setback was more surprising, given it was the team's first loss at home in any competition in seven months.

And it's just one win in their last four league games for the Gunners, at a time when Manchester City — the defending champions — has been looking vulnerable with just one win in six before a come-from-behind victory at Everton on Wednesday. In truth, Arsenal — despite having 30 shots — never looked like getting the better of West Ham once the visitors went ahead through a goal that was less conclusive than the final score.

Cameras did not show definitively whether the ball was out of play when Jarrod Bowen turned it back into the penalty area for Tomas Soucek to force home a finish in the 13th minute. Bowen's right leg blocked the best sight of whether any of the ball was in play and the referee stayed with the onfield decision of giving the goal. "The technology we have at the moment is not clear enough if the ball is out," Arsenal manager Mikel Arteta said.

Konstantinos Mavropanos, a former Arsenal player, added the second goal with a glancing header at a corner in the 55th and it could have been worse had David Raya not saved a penalty by West Ham substitute Said Benrahma off virtually the last kick of the game.

Arsenal stayed in second place, two points behind Liverpool at the halfway stage of the campaign. City have a game in hand over both teams.

Meanwhile, Ramji also won the award for the best attacker in the league so far and the award for best defender went to Aditya Ganpule of Telugu Yoddhas. Odisha Juggernauts' Deepak Sahoo was named the player with the best pole dive, while Rahul Mandal of Telugu Yoddhas clinched the award for the best skydive in the ongoing season.

Many have won medals in the Games while there were a few international players.

Nepal's Lamichhane convicted of rape

KATHMANDU: Nepal's former cricket captain Sandeep Lamichhane was convicted by a court of raping a minor. In January, Nepal court released Lamichhane who was arrested after a 17-year-old girl alleged that he raped her in a hotel room in Kathmandu in August last year. Lamichhane, 23, is Nepal's most high-profile cricketer, and the first cricketer from Nepal to play in the Indian Premier League (IPL).

WRESTLING

Bajrang says 'no' to Zagreb Open, 65kg to go unrepresented?

FIROZ MIRZA @Chennai

ZAGREB Open could be the first international tournament for Indian wrestlers in 2024 as the ad-hoc committee has decided to send Asian Games participants for the Ranking Series scheduled in Croatia from January 10 to 14. It is learnt that the ad-hoc body has sent entries for the tournament.

While a total of 18 wrestlers, six in each style (men's freestyle and Greco-Roman and women's wrestling), competed at the Asian Games, sources claimed only 13 will represent the country at the Ranking Series. Bajrang Punia, who was given direct entry for the continental showpiece event, has apparently decided not to compete. The 65kg weight category is now expected to go unrepresented.

Similarly, Antim Panghal, who bagged 53kg bronze at the Asian Games, has decided to skip the tournament and attend the National Sports Awards scheduled on January 9. She along with Greco-Roman wrestler Sunil Kumar has been chosen for the Arjuna Award. The Ranking Series will start with freestyle competitions followed by women's wrestling and Greco-Roman bouts. Sunil, another bronze medallist from the Asian Games, will also attend the award function. "I am training abroad but will reach India and attend the award ceremony. I will then compete in the Ranking Series," Sunil said.

Sources told this daily that only two women wrestlers — Sonam Malik (62kg) and Radhika (68kg) — have given their consent to compete in Zagreb. "All six Greco-Roman wrestlers, two women grapplers and five from men's freestyle are scheduled to compete in the Ranking Series. Bajrang was asked whether he wanted to participate but he chose not to. No one will compete in his weight category," said sources. Competitions will be held in all 10 weight categories of each style in the Ranking Series but the ad-hoc panel decided to send entries only in Olympic weight categories as it apparently did not have time to conduct selection trials.

Notably, Bajrang along with Sakshi Malik and Vinesh Phogat spearheaded a protest against former president of Wrestling Federation of India Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh accusing him of sexual harassment.

INDIA AIM RESET IN ODIs

Even after scoring their highest ODI score against Australia, India were not able to defend the total in the first fixture. They would want to rebound in the second match of the series. A look...

DEATH BOWLING IMPROVEMENT

Australia were able to chase down the total easily. However, bowling first they gave away 82 runs in the final 10 overs. Their death bowling was not up to the mark and they would like to improve in that department.

THE BATTING DEPTH POSITIVES

It was refreshing to watch the contribution from the middle and lower middle order as India went on to score 282. India would ideally want more quick runs from the top order if they have to challenge Australia in the format.

THE SHAFALI QUESTION

The Indian opener has struggled with the bat throughout the year with 288 runs in 16 innings, including two half-centuries. One of those half-centuries came against England earlier this month, but Verma needs a big knock to make it count.

EXTREME WEATHER CONDITIONS WILDLIFE WORRIES & MUCH MORE

JITENDRA CHOUBEY

THE year that is about to end was a mixed bag for climate change, wildlife conservation and critical legislation. Various parts of the country and the world witnessed extreme weather conditions, yet the urgency to arrest global warming immediately hasn't fully sunk in internationally, if the outcome of the recent United Nations Climate Change Conference of Parties 28 (COP28) in Dubai is any indication.

COP 28

The COP28 started with high expectations but ended after two weeks of intense negotiations to signal the beginning of the end of the fossil fuel era. That was an incremental forward movement, not a big takeaway. For the first time, turning away from fossil fuels was mentioned in the final COP28 declaration, a phrase it ducked for three decades. However, the strong fossil fuel lobby managed to insert the phrase, 'fossil gas as bridging technology', in the final text while turning away from coal and oil. The launch of the Global Loss and Damage fund to support poor and developing nations mitigate the climate change impact was another step in the right direction.

HOTTEST YEAR IN HISTORY

The year 2023 was the warmest in the 174-year observational record, surpassing the previous joint warmest years. The global mean near-surface temperature in 2023 was around 1.40 ± 0.12°C above the 1850-1900 average. The previous warmest years were 2016 and 2020. In fact, the past nine years (2015–2023) were the warmest. In India too, February, August (driest) and November were the warmest months since 1901 in recorded history of the IMD. Also, 2023 was an El Nino year. It caused weakening of the Southwest monsoon, which impacted rainfall and food stock.

WATER CRISIS

The deficit in the Southwest monsoon caused tension between Karnataka and Tamil Nadu over the sharing of water of the stressed Cauvery basin. That apart, the Union Ministry of Water Resource and Management brought out two landmark reports quantifying the groundwater situation. The 6th Minor Irrigation Census shows that rural India is extracting ground water at a faster pace than is replaceable. They have been deepening tube-wells like never before to irrigate crops. Another report, Dynamic Ground Water Resource Assessment Report 2023, too, shows a jump in extraction of ground water.

WILDLIFE CONSERVATION: Challenges in Cheetah Project

The year started on high note with the translocation of a fresh batch of 12 cheetahs from South Africa to Kuno-Palpur National Park in Madhya Pradesh. However, the journey of the project was unsteady as nine cheetahs died, including three cubs. India is now left with 14 adults and a cub.

High tiger deaths

If 2023 was celebrated to mark 50 years of Project Tiger with India becoming home to the world's 75% tiger population, the year also registered the highest number of big cat deaths in the country. Current estimates show there were 204 tiger deaths in India while the corresponding figure last year was 143. Of the tiger casualties this year, 55 were killed by poachers. The highest deaths were registered in Maharashtra (52) followed by Madhya Pradesh (45). Another co-predator, leopard, had an all-time high death rate. At least 553 leopards died this year, of which 154 were killed by poachers.

On the positive side, the government decided to ban two non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs – Aceclofnac and Ketoprofen – which are toxic to vultures.

WEAKENING ENVIRONMENTAL LAWS

Despite objections from different quarters, the government amended the Forest Conservation Act 1980, to allow non-forestry activities on forest land. It also amended the Coastal Aquaculture Authority to permit coastal aquaculture activities within the environmentally fragile coastal regulation zone (CRZ). Besides, it amended the Biodiversity Act that was seen as taking away the rights of the local community, so as to help the Ayush industry increase its export of Ayurveda, Siddha, Unani and Homeopathic drugs.

It was a rollercoaster year

S V KRISHNA CHAITANYA

2023 has been a rollercoaster year for Tamil Nadu. It had its fair share of ups and downs when it came to environment protection and wildlife conservation. While the M K Stalin-led state government rolled out several landmark projects like the Nilgiri Tahr project, some of which were selected by the Union government for showcasing during the recently concluded United Nations Climate Change summit (COP28) in Dubai, Tamil Nadu also witnessed a once-in-a-lifetime weather events causing severe flooding and loss of lives.

Elephant deaths

In the first quarter, a series of unnatural deaths of elephants, especially due to electrocution, made headlines. From February to April alone, 19 elephants were killed due to unnatural causes. This forced the state to launch a crackdown on illegal energisers. In a first-of-its-kind initiative, the Tamil Nadu government notified the Power Fences (Registration and Regulation) Rules, 2023 to protect the wildlife, especially elephants, from getting electrocuted.

Kaliveli protected

TNIE was part of the efforts to save the Kaliveli backwaters. From 2021, a series of articles were published on how the proposed twin fishing harbours in Kaliveli estuary would compromise the entire ecosystem. In August this year, the National Green Tribunal finally kept the environment clearance granted to the project of the fisheries department in abeyance. The site chosen was unsuitable for such a large project. The site is an Olive Ridley turtle nesting place and the Yedayanthittu estuarine water is rich in seagrass beds. All these ecological signatures qualify the area as CRZ-1A, where construction of harbours is prohibited, according to the Coastal Regulation Zone (CRZ) Notification, 2019.

Unprecedented flooding

This northeast monsoon will go down in history as one of weird and overpowering seasons with two back-to-back extreme weather events that caused extensive flooding and loss of lives. First it was cyclone Michaung that dumped close to 45 cm in two days drowning Chennai and then a once-in-hundred-years event shocked people of Thoothukudi and Tirunelveli. Kayalpattinam in Thoothukudi alone recorded 93 cm of rainfall in 24 hours. The state suffered thousands of crores of rupees in damages and many lives were also lost.

PAINTING THE TOWN PINK

She came and coloured the world pink. We are speaking about Barbie. When the first poster of Margot Robbie-starrer Barbie, was released during the summer of 2023, no one would have thought the Barbie pink would have snowballed into something so big. From dresses to pants suits, the colour spread like wildfire. Brands and celebrities hopped onto the bandwagon of painting the town pink.

BENGALURU HUDUGI, GLOBAL ICON

This was the year of Bollywood star Deepika Padukone, who the world saw rise and shine. The Bengaluru girl made headlines for more than one reason. Being the global face of various luxury brands like Cartier and Louis Vuitton (LV), she carried India to various global stages. Her bespoke LV black gown and Cartier neckpiece made her Oscar debut impressive. With many Bollywood representations at the Paris Fashion Week this year, she stood tall with her style.

PEARLY WHITE

This classic gemstone became one of the fashion statements this year once it started being placed on attire. Remember Alia Bhatt's pearl-clad gown at the Met Gala? This turned into an inspiration for creative ideas like getting a pearl vest or a pearl belt which can be worn on western or ethnic wear, elevating any look.

LOOKBOOK 2023

REAR VIEW 2023

From Barbiecore to Deepika Padukone's international style statement, fashion made the right kind of noise this year. CE rewinds to recall some of the trendiest of trends in the space of fashion

MONIKA MONALISA

2023 witnessed many fashion trends, establishing how fashion makes a strong statement. This time with many Indians making their global presence, indigenous styles became a conversation starter. Here are some of the newsmaking trends in the fashion world

WHY KNOT!

Who would have thought crochet, a hobby from our grandparents' time would become a fashion rage? Well... 2023 saw that too. Celebrities wore it, and youngsters wore it too, making it an unusual sensation of the year. Tops, dresses, shrugs and crochet attire came in various options. This gave a boom to many who started crocheting for fun but now have taken it up professionally.

EVERGREEN SAREE

The ever-so-elegant six-yard fabric saw an international fan following with Zendaya and Gigi Hadid picking it as the attire of choice for the opening of the Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre in Mumbai. Supermodel Naomi Campbell's saree-gown at the Met Gala was a modern spin on the traditional drape. Alia Bhatt rewearing her wedding saree for her National Awards put the garment in focus again.

PURPLE ENERGY

If there is one colour that dominated the ethnic wardrobe, it has to be purple. From the wedding season to the Deepavali celebrations, the colour sneaked into the closets of celebrities like Janhvi Kapoor, Tamannaah Bhatia, and Karisma Kapoor.

'23 SETS stage for dynamic gastronomic landscape of '24

ASLAM GAFOOR

(The writer is a Bengaluru-based hospitality professional, food lover, and travel enthusiast)

As we bid farewell to 2023, Bengaluru's bustling food and beverage scene continues to showcase the city's culinary prowess. The year was marked by a significant transformation, featuring the launch of swanky restaurants, the surge of the millet revolution, the adoption of plant-based menus, the thriving microbrewery scene, the flourishing of craft beverages, and the evolution of experiential dining.

Delving deeper into the fabric of Bengaluru's F&B landscape, distinguishing trends included technological integration, celebration of authentic regional cuisine, community involvement, innovations in food delivery, zero-waste initiatives, and an increasing focus on mindful dining. We sought insights from industry experts, obtaining a firsthand account of their observations as they experienced the unfolding of 2023.

Managing partner of Daysie : All Day Casual Bar, Anirudh Kheny, emphasised Bengaluru's culinary scene, highlighting its commitment to a wide range of flavours by combining regional, local, and worldwide cuisines. Bengaluru has seen the emergence of specialised cuisine-focused restaurants, fine dining venues with outstanding menus, and unique concepts such as speakeasies. Leading Indian and international food and beverage brands are drawn to the city, demonstrating their willingness to offer a wide range of culinary experiences.

The vibrant and diverse food and beverage scene of Bengaluru was highlighted by JP Singh, executive chef at the Sheraton Grand Bengaluru Whitefield. He brought to fore the celebration of local and regional cuisine, sustainability, creative food concepts, tech integration, health-conscious dining, and the thriving café culture.

Chef-turned-entrepreneur Tarun Sibal echoed the sentiment, complimenting Bengaluru on its shift to food stories driven by content, with a variety of F&B formats and blockbusteropenings. The new airport terminal's international restaurant brand openings increased the city's culinary appeal.

Bengaluru's pleasant transition was underlined by Debaditya Chaudhury, the managing director and founder of Chowman, particularly in speciality coffee shops and craft breweries. Sustainability became the main focus, signifying an attempt to protect the environment, while culinary innovation broke down conventional barriers.

This year's travellers showed a great passion for regional cuisine, according to Hyatt Centric head chef Gaurav Ramakrishnan. In the metropolis, tea-infused mocktails, cocktails, and fermented brews gained popularity in the city.

The Hilton Bangalore Embassy Golflinks' Sourav Chowdhury, manager of food and beverage, highlighted the revolutionary development in Bengaluru's F&B market by emphasising sustainability, robust online presence, and Instagram-worthy dining options. Businesses that were well-established online and provided flawless delivery services prospered by adapting to the changing demands of their tech-savvy clientele.

According to the annual trends report by a leading food delivery app, the most popular dish ordered in 2023 was biryani, which was closely followed by idli, and chocolate cake.

Co-founder and director of World of Brands Gurpreet Singh praised the astounding growth in the number of new food and beverage enterprises, particularly in the wake of challenges induced by Covid. Noteworthy trends included the surge in gin popularity, the promising trajectory of tequila growth, and the establishment of friendly neighbourhood bars.

In summary, 2023 has proven to be an exceptional year for all stakeholders in Bengaluru's food and beverage chain. Chefs, proprietors, suppliers, content curators, and diners alike shared in the delightful experiences of the past year, setting the stage for an even more dynamic gastronomic landscape of 2024.

From '90s nostalgic blends to locally-sourced ingredients, here's a deep dive into the diverse mixology trends

Mixology Milestones

MIXOLOGY
Kamlesh Meshak

(The writer is the head mixologist/bartender at the Long boat brewing Co.)

AS the year draws to a close, one can thank 2023 for being one when people were again able to flock pubs. Here's a look at the noticeable trends behind the bar.

- Spicy cocktails: There has been a shift from the traditional, more sweet cocktails towards savoury options. Some popular ones were Spicy Margs, Bloody Maria's, and the Cucumber Wasabi Martini.
- '90s throwback: Cocktail lovers were drooling over the '90s drinks, be it an Espresso martini or a Cable Car. One would also be surprised to find Sex on the Beach, Cosmopolitan, and Bramble, competing against new-age options on a party menu.
- Unique ice cubes: Over the years, cocktails have been garnished with different types of ice cubes that differ in shape and size. These not only make the Manhattan cool, they also add to the aesthetics. Lime, lemon, cucumber can also be added to the cubes.
- Negroni with a twist: Mixologists tried twists with already-popular cocktails, notably, the Negroni. This classic bittersweet cocktail became a part of many parties, and one low-alcohol version was the Sbagliato, which uses sparkling wine instead of gin.

DARSHAN WIELDS HIS FINEST WEAPON YET

A SHARADHAA

RATING 4/5

A TEMPLATE of mass hero films often weaves together a mass introduction, high-energy fights, and emotive songs—a breeze of romance accompanied by entertainment. This is a common thread, which has been evident in Challenging Star Darshan's movies as well. While he usually plays these larger-than-life characters, Darshan and his fans were waiting to see him in a film that would exemplify the artist in him. Then, Kaatera happened.

Kaatera steers away from conventional mass formulas, and full credit should go to director Tharun Kishore Sudhir, and his co-writer Jadeshaa K Hampi. The film begins with an intriguing suspense involving 107 skulls that are being investigated. Parallely, we see a crowd hesitating to board a bus due to an elderly man in handcuffs, swiftly followed by Darshan's unconventional portrayal in an old-age getup. The first signs of Darshan playing a distinct role is soon clear.

Kaatera (Darshan Thoogudeepa) narrates his story to a police constable (Achyuth Kumar) who accompanies him on his journey, acquainting us with characters like the younger Kaatera, a blacksmith residing in Bheemanahalli, Chongla (Biradar), and Puttaraju (Rohith P V). The part where Chongala expresses interest in playing a particular character in a drama spearheaded by Kaatera's brother-in-law (Kumar Govind) but misses the opportunity, establishes a layer of depth to the characters. We are also introduced to Kaatera's mother (Padma Vasanthi) and sister (Shruthi).

Director Tharun refrains from showcasing flashy introductory songs or randomly placed fights just to satiate the fans seeking instant gratification. Instead, Kaatera gradually builds up to its first intense fight sequence nearly 40 minutes in, solidifying the experimental tone maintained throughout in this Darshan film.

The film is based on a real incident revolving around the 1974 land reform rights during Devaraj Urs' tenure as Chief Minister, and sheds light on the unsung heroes and the plight of unfair treatment faced by farmers. The film emphasises the need to bridge the gap between different social groups. The main character subtly conveys this message in important scenes without being too preachy.

Kaatera, known for his unwavering honesty and daring spirit, captures Prabhavathi's (Aradhanaa) heart despite their contrasting backgrounds. While Prabhavathi stands as the sole beacon of knowledge in the village, she becomes an insightful observer of the societal shifts. The villagers in Bheemanahalli are fed up with the oppressive rule of feudal lords Devaraya (Jagapathi Babu) and Kaalegowda (Vinod Alva) from the neighbouring domain. As the only informed youth, Prabhavathi serves as an observer of the village's transformations.

KAATERA

Cast: Darshan, Aradhana, Jagapathi Babu, Vaijanath Biradar, Vinod Alva, Kumar Govind, Shruti, Rohith PV

Director: Tharun Kishore Sudhir

Producer: Rockline Venkatesh

With the arrival of land reforms, hope sparks among the villagers to break free from Devaraya and Kaalegowda's tyranny. Supported by Prabhavathi, Kaatera endeavours to challenge these mighty landlords, enduring great sacrifices. As the story unfolds, the mystery deepens around the connection between Kaatera and the puzzling piles of skeletons unearthed. Will Kaatera, alongside Prabhavathi, defy these formidable feudal overlords, or will their rule stand firm despite the sacrifices? This pivotal clash shapes the film's heart, shedding light on the intricate Holemari tradition—a sacred ritual honouring Kaateramma. Additionally, the movie delves into themes of honour killings, feudalism, agrarian turmoil, and the plight of farmers, weaving a societal exploration.

The equation between Tharun and Darshan kickstarted with Chowka, followed by Roberrt, leading to the hat-trick collaboration in Kaatera. Tharun's knack for creative storytelling ensures a unique entertainment experience tailored to his vision while harnessing Darshan's star power.

Tharun realises his vision by proper utilisation of Darshan's stardom albeit in a distinctly different way in a raw, and rustic narrative. His larger-than-life persona comes to the fore but is firmly tethered to genuine content. The punchy dialogues by Maasthi, crafted for each character, elevate the narrative. Furthermore, the well-choreographed action sequences by the Ram-Laxman duo seamlessly blend into the storyline.

Sudhakar S Raj's cinematography preserves the vintage ambience throughout while creating a different atmosphere when Darshan appears in an aged look. V Harikrishna's signature music style complements the narrative. But then, the duration is a matter of contention. It's a trend in recent films to extend the runtime for a detailed storytelling experience, but there is a definite conversation brewing around a film's length. Set in a retro era, while the villain template may seem familiar, it plays a crucial role in the narrative's progression, an essential aspect despite its perceived predictability.

As a farmer himself, Darshan has thoroughly invested in the character, embracing it entirely. His portrayal shines in two different avatars—one as a spirited youth and the other as a seasoned individual. Balancing action with depth, this role demands robust acting skills, and Darshan delivers exceptionally. Sometimes he captivates with a composed demeanour, while in other moments, he exudes remarkable intensity.

Darshan's narrative of his own story adds depth to his younger version. As a superstar, his portrayal of Kaatera unveils a genuine artiste within him, showcasing his finest performance as a mass hero.

Aradhana's debut in Kaatera is promising; her role is solid, and her confidence is evident. She makes a significant mark in a commercial film that rides on a hero, yet gets ample screen space to showcase her talent. The film marks the comeback of Vinod Alva and Kumar Govind, along with good performances by Jagapathi Babu, Avinash, Vijanath Biradar, Shruthi, and the child artist Rohit. Moreover, it's crucial to note the significant contribution of producer Rockline Venkatesh, enriching the production value and enhancing the film's visual grandeur.

As Kaatera draws to a close, defying the expected climax fight in typical mass hero films, Darshan imparts a message that truly justifies the essence of the film and his character. It's intriguing how a star like Darshan, capable of high-octane entertainment, through the role of Kaatera, only becomes one of the unsung heroes in the retelling. An important scene of Kaatera has Darshan playing Bhakta Prahalada in a play, and it's a reminder of his theatre background, a source of inspiration, while also highlighting that with Kaatera, Darshan might have just wielded his most formidable weapon yet.

2023 KANNADA CINEMA: A YEAR IN REVIEW

REAR VIEW 2023

A SHARADHAA

AS the year draws to a close, Kannada cinema has witnessed the release of over 225 movies. Last year's blockbusters like KGF 2, Kantara, and 777 Charlie significantly raised the bar for Kannada cinema within the Indian film industry. With high expectations, this year was anticipated to further elevate the stature of Kannada films. While some attained financial success, the pinnacle arrives with the year's final release on December 29, Kaatera, hinting at a potential blockbuster.

In 2023, non-Kannada films didn't substantially overshadow the local releases in Karnataka. Although films in other languages garnered considerable revenue, only a couple of Kannada productions dominated the screens. Curious about the monthly highlights? Here's a comprehensive breakdown.

This year saw fewer star-studded releases. While there were star films of Shivarajkumar, Darshan, Ganesh, Darling Krishna, Prajwal Devraj, Rakshit Shetty and Raj B Shetty, there was also a significant number of new films among the 225 releases. Among them, only a few managed to truly stand out. Many arrived and departed unnoticed, with even the more familiar names struggling to maintain a lasting presence in theaters.

Between January and March 2023, a staggering 69 films were premiered. The first big-budget film, Kranti starring Darshan, generated immense hype and performed above average. Following suit, Kabza was released in multiple languages but had an average run. Films like 19 20 21, Hondisi Bareyiri, Orchestra Mysuru, and Gurudeva Hoysala gained attention, while others like Gowli, Lovebirds, and Spooky College faced losses. From April to June, 49 Kannada films hit the screens. Apart from Dare devil Mustafa and Shivaji Surathkal, no other film seemed to achieve substantial success. Films like Veeram, Pentagon, Shivaji Surathkal 2, Raghavendra Stores, English Manja, and Undenaama, despite high anticipation, fell short. New attempts like Raghu and Pinki Eli drew some attention, but the Sandalwood box office appeared bleak.

Around 50 films were released from July to September. Despite releases like Hostel Hudugaru Bekaagidhare, Krishna's Kausalya Supraja Rama, Ashwini Puneeth Rajkumar's Achar & Co, and Rakshit Shetty's Sapta Sagaradaache Yello Side A capturing audience attention, other films like Toby and Banadaariyalli created a buzz, while Totapuri 2 and Namo Bhootatma 2 failed to make the expected impact.

From October to December, 56 films got released. Darshan's Kaatera towards the year's end hints at a superhit. Films like Shivarajkumar's Ghost and Rakshit Shetty's Sapta Sagaradache Yello Side B enjoyed a good run, resonating well with audiences and benefiting the producers. Highly anticipated films like Yograj Bhat's Garadi and Suri's Bad Manners fell short. However, Raj B Shetty's Swathi Mutthin Male Haniye, produced by Ramya, received critical acclaim.

Of the 225+ films in 2023, a significant number comprised fresh releases—around 180 in total. Despite the Kannada film industry's investment of over 300 crores this year, a substantial number failed to translate into profits. However, films in other languages managed to garner substantial earnings. A stronger performance from star-studded films could stabilize theaters and draw consistent audiences. Will the industry address these issues in 2024? Let's wait and watch.
